United Lutheran Seminary

Master of Arts

Are you longing for more theological study without the specific discernment of rostered ministry?

The Master of Arts is an excellent way to deepen your discipleship or broaden your capabilities as a leader. Combing the MA with another degree or certification is a solid path to highlight yourself as a theologian.

UNIFYING, LEARNING, SERVING

VERSATILE VERACITY.

The Master of Arts (MA) at United Lutheran Seminary prepares students for further academic study and ministerial leadership in the Christian Church. This degree program is designed to provide students the opportunity to pursue a concentration in an area of theological interest while also building a broad foundation for further graduate study, general education, or vocational use.

Concentrations are available for either Academic or Professional Tracks, including:

- Bible
- History
- Theology
- Pastoral Care
- Interfaith Studies
- Christian Education
- Lutheran Studies
- Liturgy and Music
- Integrative Theology
- Metropolitan/Urban Ministry
- Rural Ministry
- Black Church

Other concentrations may be available in consultation with an academic advisor.

The degree is a 2-year program when taken full-time, requiring a total of 51 credits. Courses will be offered on both campuses in various formats: residential, hybrid, intensive, and online. Need- and merit-based financial aid is available to support you in your vocation.
