I Use My Shoes

To Share The Good News

Have you ever stopped to think about all the different kinds of shoes in the world? We've got baseball shoes, basketball shoes, soccer shoes, tennis shoes, even jogging shoes. And then there are sandals, clogs, sneakers, loafers, moccasins, boots, and bedroom slippers.

The list could probably go on forever, but all shoes have one main purpose: to protect our feet while we're getting to where we're going.

As Christians, we, too, have a primary purpose: to share the Good News about Jesus wherever our feet and shoes take us. You see, people wearing shoes that go and share the gospel are beautiful in the eyes of God. Some beautiful person brought it to you. And you can take it to others.

Key Verse

How will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, "How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!"

Romans 10:15

Make-it-Stick

Write this HoneyWord Lesson on two slips of paper and place one inside each of your shoes for a day or two. Every time you remember they're there, ask God for boldness to use your shoes to go and share the Good News with one person who needs it. Then get ready. That's the kind of prayer God really loves to answer.

Everyone Take Turns Explaining the Meaning of this Lesson in Your Own Words

Ask, "What does this lesson mean?" If the answer is in the ballpark of the correct meaning, praise that person out loud. Then ask another child to explain it. Do this 2 or 3 times in a row.

Hold Up the Click-er

Hold up the Click-er (shoes) and say this HoneyWord Lesson out loud:

"I use my shoes to share the Good News."

Then repeat it out loud together one more time.

Pair Up in Small Groups of Two

If you're with more than one child, have your children pair up and ask each other to say the lesson out loud to each other.

Re-Group and Recite Again

Ask one child to say the lesson one more time, and then explain what it means.
