Let nothing disturb you,

Let nothing frighten you,

All things are passing away:

God never changes.

Patience obtains all things

Whoever has God lacks nothing;

God alone suffices.

INTERMENT

George Patrick Fletcher, 69 years old passed away on February 22, 2022 at his home in Sheridan, Wyoming. George passed away from progressive prostate cancer. He bravely battled this disease since his diagnosis in 2016.

Mr. Fletcher was born in Sheridan, WY on June 24th, 1952 to Joe and Shirley Fletcher. George attended Woodland Park Elementary and Sheridan High School. He met and married Susan Gail Patton in Sheridan, Wyoming in 1971. He attended Montana State University (MSU) in Bozeman, Montana from 1972 to 1976 while Susan worked and raised their children. After he received his BS Construction Engineering Technology degree, the couple moved back to Sheridan in 1976 where George joined the family business, Fletcher Construction Company.

George successfully ran Fletcher Construction along with his wife Susan for 30 years before retiring and passing on the family business to his daughter and son-in-law, Amy and Eric Bouley. During his years of leadership, Fletcher Construction built many of the main commercial and public use buildings in Sheridan and Johnson County. George found great fulfillment when working on a building project, no matter how small or large.

George served on many boards in the Sheridan community.

After losing Susan in 2007, George remarried Paula A. Taberna, December 3, 2011.

An outdoor enthusiast, he enjoyed skiing, waterskiing, hunting, golf, and fishing. Some of his fondest memories were hunting or fishing with his father, son, grandson, and friends. He loved horses and packhorse hunting trips. He also enjoyed gardening and home improvement work. He lived out the philosophy that work is good for the soul. During his retirement, he and his wife Pauli spent many days fishing on intercoastal waters out of Port Charlotte, Florida.

Growing up on a ranch, George was an avid agriculturist all of his life. He enjoyed irrigating, swathing, and bailing his hay field, tending to his bee colonies and vegetable garden, and helping his wife Pauli with flower and shrub gardens in Florida.

George is survived by his wife Pauli of Sheridan, his two daughters Amy Bouley and Georgia Boley, his son Samuel all of Sheridan, his brother J. Lancer Fletcher and Sister Margaret Fletcher of Sheridan, and his seven grandchildren Nalin and Cutter Fletcher, Olivia and Elliot Boley, and Clara, Rebecca, and Leah Bouley.
