

Certificate of Participation

This certificate is awarded to for demonstration of responsible stewardship of water resources.

Awarded by

The EarthEcho Water Challenge is an international education and outreach program that builds public awareness and involvement in protecting water resources around the world by encouraging citizens to conduct basic monitoring of their local water bodies.

www.MonitorWater.org