CGTI's unique 3 day Chartered Director Program provides Board Members with the frameworks to: effectively oversee the CEO; constructively engage with Management to help set and execute their organization's strategy; and ensure the financial integrity of their organization's financial (and other) reporting systems.

CGTI will provide the Directors of Caribbean organizations with the latest 21st Century governance tools needed to help them excel in the boardroom.

"The Chartered Director Programme offered by the Caribbean Governance Training Institute is awesome! As we become more immersed in the corporate environment of the 21st century, The Chartered Director Programme prepares us to hone our knowledge and skills to grapple with the complex challenges of governance. You will be interacting with professionals who have practical global experience and who are passionate about sharing the best corporate practices."
