Executive Chairman & Principal

Great Boards help drive and sustain the success of their organizations. In response to the COVID-19 situation, CGTI now offers its internationally acclaimed and unique Chartered Director Program on-line. It's the same as our in-person program - only on-line, with live, interactive presentations from global governance gurus. And it's still the same dynamic educational initiative which focuses on the latest best practices that Caribbean Board Members need to know if they are to competently carry out their roles as both "organizational stewards" and "active participants" with Management in major strategic and capital spending decisions.
