SEASON NINE 2016 LOYALTY

We feel loyalty to our family, to our heritage, to our homeland. We make pledges to tether us to one another. But as we age we form new alliances. If we leave the place of our upbringing, what happens to these ties that bind? Do our devotions remain? Merriam-Webster writes that lovaltv "implies a faithfulness that is steadfast in the face of any temptation to renounce, desert, or betray. "When we recall the promises made in our youth, what of these loyalties from our past are part of who we are today, and which ones were left behind? Join us for another provocative season at your theater on 16th Street.

KILLADELPHIA

Written and performed by Sean Christopher Lewis.

In 2008 Philadelphia had "more bodies than days." Meet the inmates of Grateford Prison who received their life sentences before they were old enough to drink. A play about crime, the worlds we want to live in and the worlds we really do.

DOGS OF RWANDA

Written and performed by Sean Christopher Lewis

In 1994 David was a church missionary who followed a woman into the woods along the Rwandan border. 20 years later, after writing a memoir, he is compelled to return after a note arrives: "You didn't tell them everything." Did loyalty to his story obscure the truth he was willing to see?

A hit comedy about books and the people who love them. When the members of a devoted book club become the subjects of a documentary filmmaker and accept a provocative new member, their long-standing group dynamics take a hilarious turn. Sprinkled with wit, joy and novels galore, "The Book Club Play is a dangerous comedy about community, high and low culture, and the absolute terror of group dynamics," -MOLLY SMITH, ARENA STAGE

Davis and Robby were childhood friends, but that was a long time ago. Now Davis lives in Brooklyn far away from his home of Stockton, CA, in all ways. When Robby shows up in New York unexpectedly, his brash nature sparks conflicts among Davis' new circle spurring debates about race, class, and forcing Davis to confront the person he was and to question where his loyalty lies.

West Side Story

It's quite possibly one of the greatest love stories ever to be told in a musical. Set in the blue-collar neighborhood of New York's Upper West Side, racial tensions run high as residents try to grind out a daily living. From heart-wrenching ballads like "Somewhere" and steamy Latin beats in "America" to the soaring lyrics of "Tonight," West Side Story is a Leonard Bernstein & Stephen Sondheim musical masterpiece. The choreography is a fine balance of vicious intensity and romance that will take your breath away. It makes no difference if you've seen West Side Story before or if you've never seen it at all. Like all the shows before them, Paramount's creative team will take this production to a level that will make this THE West Side Story you never forget. Hazel

This world premiere musical comedy is based on the comic strip character created by Ted Key and the popular television series which starred Shirley Booth. Hazel kicks off Drury Lane's 2016-2017 season and is sure to bring nostalgia to Baby Boomers and their parents. Set in the 1960s, it's a time of great change for America, but not all members of the Baxter family are on board. What George Baxter finds not so funny about his wife joining the work force and his maid taking over his household and his life--is a laugh riot. Directed and choreographed by Emmy Award winner Joshua Bergasse, Hazel asks the question: Can a simple maid debone a turkey, save a marriage, uncover a matter of national security and lead a conga line? She can if she's Hazel! Please make your entrée selection of Chicken Breast Mediterranean or Lemon Sole at time of registration. Fee includes transportation, lunch, admission and escort.
