

Claude Bernard Stuczynski -Short Curriculum Vitae

Claude (Dov) B. Stuczynski is an Associate Professor at the Department of General History (Bar-Ilan University) and board member of the Center for the Study of Conversions and Interreligious Encounters (CSOC) at Ben-Gurion University. Having written a number of Contributions in various languages, his two main fields of research are: The Portuguese Converso phenomenon and the first encounters between Europeans and Amerindians.

He is mainly interested in the relationship between religion and politics in Medieval and Early Modern periods. Actually he prepares a study of the theological-political dimension of the Converso phenomenon (what he calls: “The Marrano Paulinian Moment”).

Among his contributions are the following: Between Religion and Religiosity among the New Christians of Bragança in the 16th Century, (in Hebrew); The New Christians in Portugal in the XXth Century (Hebrew edition: The Israeli Historical Society, French forthcoming edition);- ‘On Behalf of the Nation’. New Christian Apologetics in the Iberian World. He published a numbers of articles, reviews, and entries, contributing in Adriano Prosperi's and John Tedeschi's Dizionario Storico dell'Inquisizione, Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa, 4 vols. (Italian). He is co-editor with David Graizbord of a special issue of the Journal “Jewish History” dedicated to Early Modern Portuguese New Christian Identities.
