

Email Policy

Time is money. Heritage Bank offers innovative, sophisticated information access and reporting to save you time so you can focus on the day to day operation of growing your business. We will NOT:

- Send an e-mail that will require you to enter personal or financial information directly into an e-mail.
- We will never send you an e-mail threatening to close your account if you do not take the immediate action of providing personal information.
- We will never share your name with any contacts outside our company in a manner that would be inconsistent with our Privacy Policy which can be found by clicking the Privacy link at the top of our web page.
