FRIENDS HELPING FRIENDS

Our deepest human needs include reconciliation with God and self, establishing secure relationships with networks of healthy individuals, and possessing a life plan that includes helping others.

FRIENDS HELPING FRIENDS, is a God and community centered Life Empowerment Program that uses a collaborative community partnership approach where community members help each other to find wholeness, healing, and relational connection to God and each other. This 'family dynamic' approach uses supportive and restorative practices as a conduit for life transformation.

- ⇒ Spiritual, emotional and/or physical healing
- ⇒ Encouragement
- ⇒ Close friendships
- ⇒ Living in community with others
- ⇒ A place to serve and help others
- ⇒ Assistance in moving forward in life in a positive direction
- ⇒ A deeper relationship with God
- ⇒ Freedom from hurts and mistakes of the past
- ⇒ And/or a community of loving persons to cheer them on.

The 2nd Street Commons
405 N. 2nd Street, CDA, ID.

FRIENDS HELPING FRIENDS is held at the 2nd Street Commons in Coeur d'Alene.

During our meetings, guests can come in to relax and build relationships in a safe and friendly environment, enjoy free coffee, catch a free nutritious meal, and connect with a variety of resources. We also open up the Commons to various other groups during the mornings and evenings including local social service agencies, churches, and other community groups. Our goal is to see the 2nd Street Commons established as a community hub for information, resources, collaborative initiatives, and building relationships.
