Copyright Transfer Statement

Client: Rashad Garrett

Project: Logo design

This form details the transfer of copyright for the logo design specified and the visual examples attached.

By signing this Copyright Transfer Form, I will be relinquishing all personal and professional rights to the logo design you hired me to create.

This signed agreement also includes the transfer of rights to any variations of the logo previously agreed and supplied as part of the initial proposal.

Example of these variations could include: multiple color versions, size and dimensional variations – landscape and portrait, reversed out versions, social media profile images, favicon etc.

Is there anything missing on this Copyright Transfer Form that was previously agreed? Let me know before accepting this statement. It is critical the information shared here is understood and accepted in whole.

Counters signing this statement forms your contractual acceptance of the Copyright Transfer Form and the terms thus set out.

Restrictions & Caveats

RESTRICTIONS TO THE SIGNING OF THIS AGREEMENT

There are restrictions to this agreement as is specified on your initial proposal and listed again here.

The Copyright Transfer Form does not give you the rights or permission to use/modify/alter/replicate or borrow any of the previous ideas/concepts/sketches previously shown and presented. All original preparation materials, sketches, visuals and unused ideas previously shown and considered will remain the property of n3tworth.

I am free to use these unused and previous ideas for future conceptual and client work. Where a previously unused idea/design retains a similar look and style to the finished logo, I shall repurpose and style so that the end design is sufficiently different as to not cause conflict.

Unless otherwise agreed and arranged, I reserve the right to showcase the finished logo and associated designs in my portfolio and in any number of online galleries/portfolio/showcases as well as in printed literature including books and magazines, now and in the future. Associated designs and artwork can include commercial print design/ business card/stationery design/signage/desktop icons/mobile phone and other portable device application icons and imagery.

ANY supporting artwork and designs required by this project can be used as indicated by n3tworth for personal and professional reasons.

You are free to change, modify and adapt the finished logo design as you see fit, but you do so at your own risk.

Any form of legal Trademark Registering and Copyrighting of the logo remains the sole responsibility of the client named in this statement.
