You too will be regally welcomed; to the Grey Lady Suite, a dedicated events venue where you can hold your civil marriage ceremony and reception – and to the grand house, which can entertain and accommodate bride and groom, family and friends.

So look forward to looking after guests in lavish style – and enjoy the magic of an elegant, historic hall and reception suite in breathtaking, beautiful surroundings.

THE WEDDING LOCATION

Everything your heart desires

Irton Hall and the Grey Lady Suite were perfectly made for weddings, thanks to their beautiful location, wonderful choice of amenities and professional five-star service. There's an excellent restaurant, bar and lounge in the Hall itself, so you can plan pre-wedding dinners and celebrations there.

There's plenty of room to accommodate those who want to stay overnight for a day or two – and we have a choice of 15 beautifully appointed en suite rooms. There are also six comfortable self-catering properties on the Irton Hall estate.

The Grey Lady Suite is also a perfect place for pre-wedding celebrations – and, of course, for the wedding reception itself. In addition, you can be married in a civil ceremony at the Grey Lady Suite – or at a neighbouring church, before coming to Irton Hall for your reception.

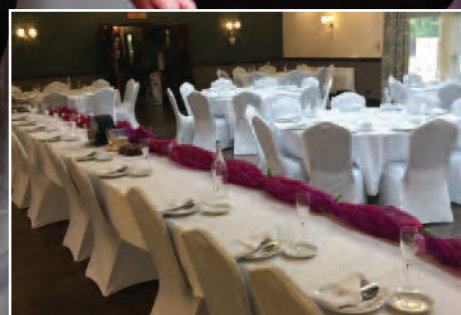

A GLORIOUS DAY

We do...

For an intimate or large-scale reception at Iron Hall, our luxury Grey Lady Suite is sure to suit your needs – and, naturally, it's fully licensed for civil marriage services.

Located in the landscaped grounds close to the Hall, and exclusively yours for the duration of the wedding celebrations, this purpose-built venue can seat up to 150 for a seated wedding breakfast and up to 200 for a non-seated evening reception.

The Grey Lady has a large partition door that can be opened or closed to allow for virtually any size of celebration – and the venue is fitted with sparkling chandeliers, plus there are large windows that overlook the surrounding grounds. There is also a solid-wood dance floor, toilets and lounge area with a fully licensed bar.

HERE'S TO THE BRIDE AND GROOM!

celebrations begin*

When the weather is warm, nothing so becomes a wedding as the opportunity for guests to step outside, enjoy the fresh air, and socialise in green and pleasant surroundings, where there's plenty of room to relax and enjoy the great outdoors.

In addition, Irton Hall's gardens offer endless photo-opportunities for the wedding album, plus they can provide plenty of space for children to play in; we can even arrange for a bouncy castle and other kids' entertainments that will keep young ones happy and occupied all day!
