

EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR PRINCIPAL CHANGES TO THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION (APRIL 2021)

Under Resolution 12 of the 2021 AGM, the Company proposes to adopt New Articles in place of the Company's Current Articles, principally to permit the Company to hold "hybrid" general meetings (including annual general meetings) in such a way that members can have the option to attend and participate either in person at the physical location of the meeting or by electronic facility or facilities and to reflect developments in practice and legislation and to provide clarification and additional flexibility. The principal changes introduced in the New Articles are summarised below. Other changes, which are of a minor, technical or clarifying nature, have not been noted in this Appendix. A copy of the New Articles is appended. Unless otherwise stated, references below use the numbering in the New Articles.

Article 38 (Attendance and speaking at general meetings)

The Current Articles provide that the Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it. The New Articles make it clear that the Directors may determine any alternative means of attendance and participation in the meeting to cater for persons located in different places and make sure that the Company is able to use electronic meeting facilities effectively.

Article 41 (Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members)

The Current Articles are silent on attendance by electronic means. The New Articles clarify that persons attending via electronic facilities are responsible for maintaining adequate facilities to enable them to do so and in case of any inability to attend via electronic means, this will not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Article 42 (Arrangements for simultaneous attendance)

The Current Articles focused on the Directors being able to take any such action as they think fit to promote the orderly conduct of the meetings. The New Articles add additional clarifications for the Company's ability to hold hybrid or electronic meetings. The New Articles clarify that the Directors may make arrangements for people located in different places to simultaneously attend any meeting and they shall be counted towards the quorum and being entitled to vote, even though the meeting may be happening electronically. The Chairman also shall be able to adjourn the meeting if an electronic facility has become inadequate for holding a proper meeting.

Article 43 (Security arrangements)

The New Articles, comparing to the Current Articles, clarify that if arrangements have been made to hold a meeting via electronic facilities, then the Directors or the Chairman may impose any requirements or restrictions as are necessary to ensure identification of those persons taking part in the meeting to account for the fact that the meeting is not a physical meeting.

Article 44 (Postponement of general meetings)

The Current Articles cater only for physical meetings including serving notices of postponement. The New Articles clarify what happens if a meeting is held through electronic facilities and it is then postponed to make sure that the Directors take reasonable steps to inform attending members of the new arrangements for the general meeting and any arrangements of the postponed meeting may be further changed by the Directors.

General

The New Articles also include changes which reflect current statutory and regulatory rules and which seek to bring the Company's articles of association in line with modern practice, including technical amendments, for example, to clarify the procedure concerning proxy appointments by electronic means, to clarify the contents of the annual general meeting notice, including specifying the place of such meeting even if the meeting is a satellite meeting, to set out the quorum requirements for general meetings so it captures qualifying and entitled to vote persons, to clarify that the polls shall include the use of ballot or voting papers or electronic means.

2. Liability of members

PART 2
DIRECTORS AND SECRETARY

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. Directors' general authority and other provisions

- (a) Subject to the Companies Act 2006 and the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.
- (b) A director shall not be required to hold any shares in the capital of the company.
- (c) There shall not be an age limit for directors.

4. Members' reserve power

- 4.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

4.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5. Directors may delegate

5.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:-

- (a) to such person or committee;
- (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
- (c) to such an extent;
- (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
- (e) on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit.

5.2 If the directors so determine, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. Committees

6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers or discretions including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing all powers and discretions whose exercise involves or may involve any payment to or the conferring of any other benefit on all or any of the directors) must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

6.3 Insofar as any such power or discretion is delegated to a committee any reference in these articles to the exercise by the directors of such power or discretion shall be read and construed as if it were a reference to the exercise of such power or discretion by such committee. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers and discretions so delegated conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed by the directors in default of which the meetings and proceedings of a committee consisting of more than one member shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of these articles regulating the proceedings and meetings of the directors. Any such regulations may provide for or authorise the co-option to the committee of persons other than directors and for such co-opted members to have voting rights as members of the committee.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. Directors to take decisions collectively

Decisions of the directors may be taken—

- (a) at a directors' meeting, or
- (b) in the form of a directors' written resolution.

8. Calling a directors' meeting

8.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving not less than 5 working days' notice of the meeting or such shorter notice as all the directors shall agree or may authorise the company secretary to give such notice.

8.2 A directors' meeting is called by giving notice of the meeting to the directors.

8.3 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:-

- (a) its proposed date and time;
- (b) where it is to take place; and
- (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

8.4 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

8.5 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

9. Participation in directors' meetings

9.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:-

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

9.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

9.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

10. Quorum for directors' meetings

10.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

10.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors and unless otherwise fixed it is two. An alternate director who is not himself a director shall be counted in a quorum.

11. Meetings where total number of directors less than quorum

11.1 This article applies where the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum for directors' meetings.

11.2 If there is only one director, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

11.3 If there is more than one director:-

(a) a directors' meeting may take place, if it is called in accordance with the articles and at least two directors participate in it, with a view to appointing sufficient directors to make up a quorum or calling a general meeting to do so, and

(b) if a directors' meeting is called but only one director attends at the appointed date and time to participate in it, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

12. Chairing directors' meetings

12.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

12.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

12.3 The directors may appoint other directors as deputy or assistant chairmen to chair directors' meetings in the chairman's absence.

12.4 The directors may terminate the appointment of the chairman, deputy or assistant chairman at any time.

12.5 If neither the chairman nor any director appointed generally to chair directors' meetings in the chairman's absence is participating in a meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. Voting at directors' meetings: general rules

13.1 Subject to the articles, a decision is taken at a directors' meeting by a majority of the votes of the participating directors.

13.2 Subject to the articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

13.3 Subject to the articles, if a director has an interest in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company:-

- (a) that director and that director's alternate may not vote on any proposal relating to it, but
- (b) this does not preclude the alternate from voting in relation to that transaction or arrangement on behalf of another appointor who does not have such an interest.

14. Chairman's casting vote at directors' meetings

14.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

14.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. Alternates voting at directors' meetings

A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is:-

- (a) not participating in a directors' meeting, and
- (b) would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it.

16. Conflicts of interest

16.1 Subject to the provisions of article 16.2, if a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum or voting purposes.

16.2 A director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in a decision at a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, relating to it for quorum and voting purposes, when:-

- (a) the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in, or voting at, a directors' meeting;
- (b) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or

- (c) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

16.3 For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes:-

- (a) any security, guarantee or indemnity given to a director in respect of money lent by him or obligations undertaken by him at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) any security given by the company to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which the director has himself guaranteed or secured in whole or in part;
- (c) any contract or arrangement by a director to subscribe for shares, debentures or other securities of the company issued or to be issued pursuant to any offer or invitation to members or debenture holders of the company or any class thereof or to the public or any section thereof, or to underwrite any shares, debentures or other securities of the company;
- (d) any contract or arrangement in which he is interested by virtue of his interest in shares or debentures or other securities of the company or by reason of any other interest in or through the company;
- (e) any contract or arrangement concerning any other company in which he is interested directly or indirectly as a shareholder holding less than 1% of any class of the equity share capital of, or the voting rights in such company as an officer, shareholder, creditor or otherwise howsoever;
- (f) any proposal concerning the adoption, modification or operation of an Employees' Share Scheme, a pension fund or retirement death or disability benefits scheme which relates both to directors and employees of the company or of any of its subsidiaries and does not provide in respect of any director as such any privilege or advantage not accorded to the employees to which such scheme or fund relates;
- (g) any arrangement for the benefit of employees of the company or of any of its subsidiaries under which the director benefits in a similar manner as the employees and which does not accord to any director as such any privilege or advantage not accorded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates; or
- (h) any proposal, contract, transaction or arrangement concerning (a) the purchase or maintenance of insurance for the benefit of the directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors, or (b) indemnities in favour of directors, or (c) the funding of expenditure by one or more directors in defending proceedings against him or them or (d) doing anything to enable such director or directors to avoid incurring such expenditure.

16.4 Subject to article 16.5, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive, unless the nature and extent of the interest of the director concerned has not been fairly disclosed to the directors.

16.5 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

17. Authorisation of Conflicts

17.1 The directors shall have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a director under Section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company; save that such authorisation of the directors shall be effective only if the required quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the interested director and the matter was agreed to without such director voting or would have been agreed to if their vote had not been counted.

17.2 Subject to article 17.3, a director shall be under no duty to the company with respect to any information which he obtains or has obtained otherwise than as a director of the company and in respect of which he has a duty of confidentiality to another person. In particular, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the company under the Companies Act 2006 because he fails:

- (a) to disclose any such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the company; and/or
- (b) to use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director of the company.

17.3 To the extent that the relationship between a director and a person to whom he owes a duty of confidentiality gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, Article 17.2 applies only if the existence of that relationship has been authorised by the directors pursuant to Article 17.1.

17.4 Where the existence of a director's relationship with another person is authorised by the directors pursuant to Article 17.1 and his relationship with that person gives rise to a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest, the director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the company under the Companies Act 2006 because he:

- (a) absents himself from meetings of the directors at which any matter relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest will or may be discussed or from the discussion of any such matter at a meeting or otherwise; and/or
- (b) makes arrangements not to receive documents and information relating to any matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest sent or supplied by the company and/or makes arrangements for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser, for so long as he reasonably believes such conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest subsists.

17.5 The provisions of articles 17.1 and 17.4 are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse the director from:

- (a) disclosing information in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under these articles; or
- (b) attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents and information as referred to in article 17.4, in circumstances where such attendance or receiving such documents and information would otherwise be required under these Articles.

17.6 For the purpose of articles 17.1 to 17.5:

- (a) a “conflict of interest” includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties;
- (b) an “interest” means a direct or an indirect interest; and
- (c) an “interest, transaction or arrangement of which a director is aware” includes an interest, transaction or arrangement of which that director ought reasonably to be aware.

18. Authorisation of Group Interests

18.1 Subject to compliance by him with his duties as a director under Part 10 of the Companies Act 2006 (other than the duty in section 175(1) of the Companies Act 2006 which is the subject of this article 18.1), a director (including the chairman (if any) and any other non-executive director) may, at any time:

- (i) be an officer of, employed by, or hold shares or other securities (whether directly or indirectly) in, the company; or
- (ii) be a director or other officer of, employed by or hold shares or other securities (whether directly or indirectly) in or otherwise be interested whether directly or indirectly, in any other group company,

(in either case a "group company interest") and notwithstanding his office or the existence of an actual or potential conflict between any group company interest and the interests of the company which would fall within the ambit of section 175(1) of the Companies Act 2006, the relevant director:

- (a) shall be entitled to attend any meeting or part of a meeting of the directors or a committee of the directors at which any matter which may be relevant to the group company interest may be discussed, and to vote on any resolution of the Directors or a committee thereof relating to such matter, and any board papers relating to such matter shall be provided to the relevant director at the same time as the other directors (save that a director may not vote on any resolution in respect of matters relating to his employment with the company or other group company);
- (b) shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives in consequence of any group company interest and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating to a group company interest shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit; and
- (c) will not, save as required by any rule of law, be obliged to disclose to the company or use for the benefit of the company any confidential information received by him by virtue of his group company interest and otherwise than by virtue of his position as a director, if to do so would breach any duty of confidentiality to any other group company or third party.

18.2 Any director who has a group company interest shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following the relevant interest arising, disclose to the Board the existence of such interest and the nature and extent of such interest so far as the relevant director is able at the time the disclosure is made provided that no such disclosure is required to be made of any matter in respect of which the relevant director owes any duty of confidentiality to any third party. A disclosure made to the board under this article 18.2 may be made either at a meeting of the board or by notice in writing to the company marked for the attention of the directors.

18.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of article 18.1, the directors (excluding the interested directors) may at any time impose conditions or limitations on the authorisations given under article 18.1 and may vary or terminate any such authorisations in respect of a particular group company interest.

19. Proposing directors' written resolutions

19.1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution.

19.2 The company secretary must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests.

19.3 A directors' written resolution is proposed by giving notice of the proposed resolution to the directors.

19.4 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate:-

- (a) the proposed resolution, and
- (b) the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it.

19.5 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must be given in writing to each director.

19.6 Any decision which a person giving notice of a proposed directors' written resolution takes regarding the process of adopting that resolution must be taken reasonably in good faith.

20. Adoption of directors' written resolutions

20.1 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when all the directors who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution at a directors' meeting have signed one or more copies of it, provided that those directors would have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

20.2 It is immaterial whether any director signs the resolution before or after the time by which the notice proposed that it should be adopted.

20.3 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles.

21. Records of decisions to be kept

The company secretary must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

22. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

23. Borrowing Powers

23.1 Subject to these articles and the Companies Acts, the board may exercise all the powers of the company to:

- (a) borrow money;
- (b) indemnify and guarantee;
- (c) mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets (present and future) and uncalled capital of the company;
- (d) create and issue debentures and other securities; and
- (e) give security either outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.

23.2 For the purpose of this article:

- (a) relevant balance sheet means the most recent audited consolidated balance sheet of the group at the relevant time;
- (b) adjusted capital and reserves means a sum equal to the aggregate, as shown by the relevant balance sheet, of the amount paid up or credited or deemed to be paid up on the issued or allotted share capital of the company and the amount standing to the credit of the reserves (including, without limitation, the profit and loss account and any share premium account or capital redemption reserve) of the company and its subsidiary undertakings included in the consolidation in the relevant balance sheet but after:
 - (i) making such adjustment as may be appropriate to reflect the profit or loss of the company since the relevant balance sheet;
 - (ii) excluding any amount set aside for taxation (including any deferred taxation) or any amounts attributable to outside shareholders in subsidiary undertakings of the company;
 - (iii) deducting any amounts attributable to goodwill or other intangible assets shown in the relevant balance sheet;

- (iv) making such adjustments as may be appropriate in respect of any variation in the amount of such paid up share capital and or any reserves (other than the profit and loss account) after the date of the relevant balance sheet. For this purpose, if any issue or proposed issue of shares by the company for cash has been underwritten then such shares shall be deemed to have been issued and the amount (including any premium) of the subscription monies paid for them (other than money to be paid more than six months after the allotment date) shall to the extent so underwritten be deemed to have been paid up on the date when the issue of such shares was underwritten (or, if such underwriting was conditional, on the date when it became unconditional);
 - (v) making such adjustments as may be appropriate in respect of any distribution declared, recommended, made or paid by the company or its subsidiary undertakings (to the extent not attributable directly or indirectly to the company) out of profits earned up to and including the date of the relevant balance sheet to the extent such distribution is not provided for in such balance sheet;
 - (vi) making such adjustments as may be appropriate in respect of any variation in the interests of the company in its subsidiary undertakings (including a variation where an undertaking ceases to be a subsidiary undertaking) since the date of the relevant balance sheet; and
 - (vii) making such adjustments as the auditors of the company may consider appropriate.
- (c) minority proportion means a proportion equal to the proportion of the issued share capital of a partly-owned subsidiary undertaking which is not attributable to a member of the group.

23.3 Borrowings shall be deemed to include the following except in so far as otherwise taken into account:

- (a) the nominal amount of any issued and paid up share capital (other than equity share capital) of any subsidiary undertaking of the company owned otherwise than by a member of the group;
- (b) the nominal amount of any other issued and paid up share capital and the principal amount of any debentures or borrowed moneys which is not at the relevant time beneficially owned by a member of the group, the redemption or repayment of which is the subject of a guarantee or indemnity by a member of the group or which any member of the group may be required to buy;

- (c) the principal amount of any debenture (whether secured or unsecured) of a member of the group beneficially owned otherwise than by a member of the group;
- (d) the outstanding amount raised by acceptances by any bank or accepting house under any acceptance credit opened by or on behalf of any member of the group;
- (e) the minority proportion of moneys borrowed by a member of the group and owing to a partly-owned subsidiary undertaking.

23.4 Borrowings shall not include and shall be deemed not to include:

- (a) borrowings incurred by any member of the group for the purpose of repaying within six months of the borrowing the whole or any part (with or without premium) of any borrowings of that or other member of the group then outstanding, pending their application for such purpose within such period;
- (b) the minority proportion of moneys borrowed by a partly owned subsidiary undertaking and not owing to another member of the group.

23.5 When the aggregate principal amount of borrowings required to be taken into account on any particular date is being ascertained, any particular borrowing then outstanding which is denominated or repayable in a currency other than sterling shall be notionally converted into sterling at the rate of exchange prevailing in London on the last business day before that date or, if it would result in a lower figure, at the rate of exchange prevailing in London on the last business day six months before that date. For these purposes the rate of exchange shall be taken to be the spot rate in London recommended by a London clearing bank, selected by the board, as being the most appropriate rate for the purchase by the company of the currency in question for sterling on the day in question.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

24. Methods of appointing directors

24.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:-

- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the directors.

24.2 At any general meeting no person other than a director retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the directors for election, be eligible for appointment as a director, unless not less than 28 nor more than 35 days before the date of the meeting:

- (a) a notice in writing, authenticated by a member (other than the person to be proposed) who is qualified to attend and vote at that meeting containing his intention to propose the person for election; and

25.1 At the first annual general meeting all the directors must retire from office. 25.2 At every subsequent annual general meeting any directors:-

- (a) who have been appointed by the directors since the last annual general meeting, or
- (b) who were not appointed or reappointed at one of the preceding two annual general meetings, must retire from office and may offer themselves for reappointment by the members.

26. Termination of director's appointment

26.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:-

- (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- (e) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- (f) notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office as director, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms; or

- (g) he is absent from meetings of the directors (whether or not an alternate director appointed by him attends those meetings) for more than six consecutive months without permission from the directors, unless prevented by illness, unavoidable accident or other cause which may seem to the directors to be sufficient, and the directors have resolved that his office be vacated.

26.2 Where a director ceases to hold office pursuant to these articles such cessation shall have effect notwithstanding any agreement between the company and the director, but will not affect any claim the director may have for damages for breach of that agreement.

26.3 If a person ceases to be a director, he shall cease to be a member of any committee of the board.

27. Directors' remuneration

27.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.

27.2 Each of the directors may be paid a fee at such rate as may from time to time be determined by the board, or any validly constituted committee of the board. Any fees payable under this Article shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration or other amounts payable to a director under any other provisions of these Articles and shall accrue from day to day.

27.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may:-

- (a) take any form, and
- (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

27.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

27.5 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

28. Directors' expenses

The company must pay any reasonable expenses which the directors (including alternate directors) and the secretary properly incur in connection with their attendance at:-

- (a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
- (b) general meetings, or

- (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

29. Other Positions

A director, including an alternate director, may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (other than the office of auditor of the company or any subsidiary of the company) in conjunction with his office of director for such period and upon such terms as the directors may determine, and may act in a professional capacity to the company, on such terms as to tenure of office, remuneration and otherwise as the directors may determine.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

30. Appointment and removal of alternates

30.1 Any director (the “appointor”) may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to:-

- (a) exercise that director’s powers, and
- (b) carry out that director’s responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate’s appointor,

(an “alternate” or “alternate director”).

30.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

30.3 The notice must:-

- (a) identify the proposed alternate, and
- (b) in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

31. Rights and responsibilities of alternate directors

31.1 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors’ meeting or directors’ written resolution, as the alternate’s appointor.

31.2 Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:-

DRAFT

- (a) are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
- (b) are liable for their own acts and omissions;
- (c) are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
- (d) are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors.

31.3 A person who is an alternate director but not a director:-

- (a) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating), and
- (b) may sign a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person's appointor).

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.

31.4 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

32. Termination of alternate directorship

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:-

- (a) when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
- (b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- (c) on the death of the alternate's appointor; or
- (d) when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates, except that an alternate's appointment as an alternate does not terminate when the appointor retires by rotation at a general meeting and is then re-appointed as a director at the same general meeting.

SECRETARY

33. Secretary to be Appointed by Board

The secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they think fit and any secretary so appointed may be removed by the directors.

34. Delegation of Secretary's Function

Anything by the Companies Acts required or authorised to be done by or to the secretary may, if the office is vacant or there is for any other reason no secretary capable of acting, be done by or to any assistant or deputy secretary or, if there is no assistant or deputy secretary capable of acting, by or to any officer of the company authorised generally or specially in that behalf by the directors: provided that any provision of the Companies Acts or of these articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in the place of, the secretary.

PART 3

DECISION-MAKING BY MEMBERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

35. Members can call general meeting if not enough directors

35.1 If:-

- (a) the company has fewer than two directors, and
- (b) the director (if any) is unable or unwilling to appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or to call a general meeting to do so, then two or more members may call a general meeting (or instruct the company secretary to do so) for the purpose of appointing one or more directors.

36. Notice of General Meeting

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, an annual general meeting shall be called by twenty-one clear days' notice at the least, and all general meetings shall be called by fourteen clear days' notice at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served, or deemed to be served, and of the day of the meeting.

The notice of meeting shall state the place (including the place of any satellite meeting determined by the directors pursuant to article 42(A)) and shall specify any means of attendance and participation determined by the directors pursuant to article 42(D), the date and the time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be dealt with. The notice calling an annual general meeting shall state that the meeting is an annual general meeting and the notice convening a meeting to pass a special resolution shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as such and shall include the text of the resolution.

- (b) A meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in the last preceding article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:
- i. in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - ii. in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares).

This article 36(b) does not apply to general meetings (other than meetings of holders of a class of shares) of a traded company (as defined in section 360C of the Companies Act 2006).

37. Rights to receive notice of General Meeting

37.1 The directors may determine that persons entitled to receive notices of meetings are those persons entered on the register of members at the close of business on a day determined by the directors being not more than 21 days before the day that the notices are sent and may specify in the notice of the meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting, by which a person must be entered on the register of members in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting. Changes to entries on the register of members after the time so specified shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting.

37.2 The accidental failure to give notice of a meeting, or of a resolution intended to be moved at a meeting, or to issue an invitation to appoint a proxy with a notice where required by these articles, to any one or more persons entitled to receive notice, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting or of such a resolution or of an invitation to appoint a proxy by any such persons, whether or not the company becomes aware of such failure to give or to issue or such non-receipt, shall be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether notice of the meeting or of any resolution to be moved at the meeting is duly given. A member present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting shall be deemed to have been sent notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

38. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

38.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

38.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:-

- (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
- (b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

38.3 The directors shall determine in relation to each general meeting, howsoever convened, any alternative means of attendance at and participation in the meeting, including whether the persons entitled to attend and participate in the general meeting shall be enabled to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at a satellite meeting place or places, in accordance with article 42(A) anywhere in the world determined by them and/or by means of electronic facility or facilities determined by them in accordance with article 42(D).

38.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

38.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

39. Quorum for general meetings

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. The quorum for a general meeting is for all purposes two qualifying persons present and entitled to vote.

40. Chairing general meetings

40.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

40.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:-

(a) the directors present, or

(b) (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

40.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as “the chairman of the meeting”.

41. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

41.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.

41.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:-

- (a) members of the company, or
- (b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

41.3 All persons seeking to attend and participate in a general meeting by way of electronic facility or facilities are responsible for maintaining adequate facilities to enable them to do so. Any inability of a person to attend or participate in a general meeting by means of electronic facility or facilities shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

42. Arrangements for simultaneous attendance

(A) In the case of any general meeting, the directors may, notwithstanding the specification in the notice convening the general meeting of the place at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside (the "principal place"), make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at another place or other places anywhere in the world ("satellite meeting") by members and proxies and others entitled to attend the general meeting. The members present in person or by proxy at any satellite meeting place or places shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if it appears to the chairman that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that members attending at the principal place and all satellite meeting places are able to:

- (i) (if they have the right to vote at the meeting) vote during the meeting, on a poll on resolutions put to the meeting on which they have the right to vote and such members' votes can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed;

- (ii) hear and see all persons who speak (whether by the use of microphones, loud-speakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise), whether in the principal place or any satellite meeting place; and
 - (iii) be heard and seen by all other persons so present.
- (B) Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance at the general meeting may include arrangements regarding the level of attendance at the other place or places provided that they shall operate so that any members and proxies excluded from attendance at the principal place are able to attend at one of the other places. For the purpose of all other provisions of these articles any such general meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the principal place.
- (C) The directors may, for the purpose of facilitating the organisation and administration of any general meeting (at the principal place and at any satellite meeting place) to which such arrangements apply, from time to time make arrangements, whether involving the issue of tickets or the imposition of some random means of selection or otherwise as they shall in their absolute discretion consider to be appropriate, and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in their place. The entitlement of any member or proxy or other person entitled to attend a general meeting at a particular venue shall be subject to such arrangements as may for the time being be in force whether stated in the notice of the general meeting or adjourned meeting to apply to that meeting or notified to the members concerned subsequent to the provision of the notice of the general meeting.
- (D) In the case of any general meeting, the directors, may, notwithstanding the specification in the notice convening the general meeting of the principal place, make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation by members and proxies and others entitled to attend the general meeting by means of electronic facility or facilities and determine the means, or all different means, of attendance and participation used in relation to a general meeting. The members present in person or by proxy by means of such electronic facility or facilities shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to participate in, the general meeting in question. That meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairman of the meeting believes that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that members attending the meeting by all means (including by means of electronic facility or facilities) are able to:
 - (i) (if they have the right to vote at the meeting) vote during the meeting, on a poll on resolutions put to the meeting on which they have the right to vote and such members' votes can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed;

- (ii) hear all persons who speak, and
- (iii) be heard by all other persons present.

When deciding whether a person is attending or participating in a meeting other than at a physical place, it is immaterial where that person is or how that person is able to communicate with others who are attending and participating.

- (E) If it appears to the chairman of the general meeting that an electronic facility has become inadequate for the purposes referred to in article 42(D), then the chairman may, without the consent of the meeting, adjourn the general meeting. All business conducted at that general meeting up to the time of that adjournment shall be valid and the provisions of article 45.5 shall apply to that adjournment.
- (F) Each director shall take such action as he thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as laid down in the notice of the meeting and the chairman's decision on matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final as shall be his determination as to whether any matter is of such a nature.

43. Security arrangements

- (A) The board may direct that members or proxies wishing to attend any general meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements or restrictions as the board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse entry to, or eject from, such general meeting any member or proxy who fails to submit to such searches or otherwise to comply with such security arrangements or restrictions.
- (B) If arrangements for participation by means of electronic facility or facilities have been made pursuant to article 42(D), the directors or the chairman of a general meeting or any person authorised by the directors may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction as are necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part and the security of electronic communications.

44. Postponement of general meetings

If the board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impracticable or undesirable for any reason to hold a general meeting:

- (A) on the date or at the time specified in the notice calling the meeting;

(B) at the place specified in the notice calling the meeting (including any satellite meeting place to which article 42(A) applies); or

(C) by means of an electronic facility or facilities specified in the notice calling the meeting, it can change any such place and/or electronic facility or facilities and/or postpone the meeting. When a meeting is so postponed or any place or electronic facility is changed, an announcement of the time, date and place(s) and/or electronic facility(ies) as applicable for the rearranged meeting shall (if practicable) be placed in at least two national newspapers in the United Kingdom. No new notice of the meeting is required. The board must take reasonable steps to ensure that members trying to attend the general meeting at the original time, date, place and/or electronic facility or facilities are informed of the new arrangements for the general meeting. Proxy forms can be delivered as specified in article 52. The directors may further change any such place(s) and/or electronic facility(ies) and/or postpone any rearranged meeting under this article.

45. Adjournment

45.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within five minutes of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it, unless the meeting was convened on the requisition of, or by members, in which case it shall be dissolved.

45.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:-

- (a) the meeting consents to an adjournment,
- (b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner, or
- (c) it appears to the chairman that an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly concluded.

45.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

45.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:-

- (a) either specify the day, time and place (including, if relevant, any satellite meeting place pursuant to article 42(A)) to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
- (b) have regard to any directions as to the day, time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

45.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):-

- (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
- (b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain (including, if relevant, any satellite meeting place pursuant to article 42(A)) and with such means of attendance and participation (including, if relevant, any electronic facility pursuant to article 42(D)) as the chairman of the meeting proposes.

45.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

DRAFT

46. Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

47. Errors and disputes

47.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting or to the counting of, or failure to count, a vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is tendered (or at which the error occurs), and every vote not disallowed at such meeting or poll shall be valid for all purposes and every vote not counted at such meeting or poll which ought to have been counted will not affect the decision of the meeting or result of the poll.

47.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final and conclusive. Whether a proxy or corporate representative has voted in accordance with any instructions given by the member who has appointed such proxy or corporate representative need not be verified by the company or any other person and any vote (whether on a show of hands or a poll) given by such proxy or corporate representative will be valid for all purposes notwithstanding any failure to follow such instructions.

48. Incapacity of a Member

48.1 A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any competent court or official on the ground that he is or may be suffering from mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of managing his affairs may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver or other person authorised in that behalf and such person may vote on a poll by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the directors of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the office or at such other place or address as is specified in accordance with the articles for the deposit or receipt of forms of appointments of a proxy, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

49. Demanding a poll

49.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:-

- (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
- (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

49.2 A poll may be demanded by:-

- (a) the chairman of the meeting;
- (b) the directors;
- (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution.

49.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:-

- (a) the poll has not yet been taken, and
- (b) the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

49.4 The appointment of a proxy shall (unless it provides to the contrary) be deemed to confer authority on the proxy to exercise all or any of the appointor's rights to attend and to speak and vote at the meeting of the company in respect of the shares to which the appointment relates including authority to demand or join in demanding a poll in accordance with section 329 of the Companies Act 2006.

50. Procedure on a poll

50.1 Subject to the articles, polls at general meetings must be taken when, where and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets or electronic means).

50.2 The chairman of the meeting may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and decide how and when the result of the poll is to be declared (including by electronic means).

50.3 The result of a poll shall be the decision of the meeting in respect of the resolution on which the poll was demanded.

50.4 A poll on:-

- (a) the election of the chairman of the meeting, or
 - (b) a question of adjournment,
- must be taken immediately.

50.5 Other polls must be taken within 30 days of their being demanded.

50.6 A demand for a poll does not prevent a general meeting from continuing, except as regards the question on which the poll was demanded.

50.7 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place and/or electronic means at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded.

50.8 In any other case, at least 7 days' notice must be given specifying the time and place and/or electronic means at or by which the poll is to be taken.

51. Content of proxy notices

51.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:-

- (a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
- (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

DRAFT

- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
- (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

51.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

51.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

51.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:-

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

52. Delivery of proxy notices

52.1 Any notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (“proxy notification address”) at which the company or its agents will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or electronic form.

52.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.

52.3 Subject to articles 52.4 and 52.5, a proxy notice must be delivered to a proxy notification address not less than 48 hours (disregarding any part of a day that is not a working day) before the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates and a proxy notice which is not delivered in such manner shall be invalid, unless the Directors, in their discretion, accept the notice at any time prior to the meeting.

52.4 In the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, the notice must be delivered to a proxy notification address not less than 24 hours (disregarding any part of a day that is not a working day) before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and a proxy notice which is not delivered in such manner shall be invalid, unless the Directors, in their discretion, accept the notice at any time prior to the meeting.

52.5 In the case of a poll not taken during the meeting but taken not more than 48 hours (disregarding any part of a day that is not a working day) after it was demanded, the proxy notice must be delivered:-

- (a) in accordance with article 52.3, or
- (b) at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman, secretary or any director.

52.6 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given to a proxy notification address.

52.7 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before:-

- (a) the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates, or
- (b) (in the case of a poll not taken on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll to which it relates.

52.8 If a proxy notice is not signed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

53. Amendments to resolutions

53.1 In the case of an ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting no amendment (other than an amendment to correct a grammatical or other substantive error in the resolution) may be considered unless:-

- (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company secretary in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
- (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

53.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may only be amended by ordinary resolution, if:-

- (a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

53.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

53.4 The chairman of the meeting may agree to the withdrawal of any proposed amendment before it is put to the vote.

RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERS' RIGHTS

54. No voting of shares on which money owed to company

Unless the directors shall otherwise determine, no voting rights attached to a share may be exercised at any general meeting, at any adjournment of it, or on any poll called at or in relation to it, unless all amounts payable to the company in respect of that share have been paid.

APPLICATION OF RULES TO CLASS MEETINGS

55. Class meetings

The provisions of the articles relating to general meetings apply, with any necessary modifications, to meetings of the holders of any class of shares.

PART 4

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

ISSUE OF SHARES

56. Powers to issue different classes of share

56.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the articles, and without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.

56.2 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and these articles, the company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

57. Allotment

57.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, these articles and to any resolution of the company and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares, the Board may offer, allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over or otherwise deal with or dispose of any shares to such persons (including the directors themselves), at such times, for such consideration and upon such terms as the directors may decide provided always that no share shall be issued at a discount to its nominal value.

- 30 -

58. Renunciation of allotment

58.1 The directors may, at any time after the allotment of any share but before any person has been entered in the register of members as the holder, recognise a renunciation of that allotment by the allottee in favour of some other person and may accord to any allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation on and subject to such terms and conditions as the directors may think fit to impose.

59. Payment of commissions on subscription for shares

59.1 The company may pay any person a commission in consideration for that person:-

- (a) subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, for shares, or
- (b) procuring, or agreeing to procure, subscriptions for shares. 59.2 Any such commission may be paid:-

- (a) in cash, or in fully paid or partly paid shares or other securities, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and
- (b) in respect of a conditional or an absolute subscription.

INTERESTS IN SHARES

60. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

61. Disclosure of Interest

61.1 No member holding shares representing 0.25 per cent or more in nominal value of the issued shares of any class of capital in the company, excluding treasury shares, shall, unless the directors otherwise determine, be entitled:-

- (a) in respect of any such shares, to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation

- to any such meeting; or
- (b) to receive payment of any dividend (including shares in lieu of dividend) or other distribution payable in respect of any such shares; or
- (c) to transfer any such shares otherwise than:-
- (i) pursuant to acceptance of a take-over offer;
 - (ii) through a recognised investment exchange or other recognised market; or
 - (iii) in any other manner which the directors are satisfied is bona fide and at arm's length (in each case hereinafter referred to as an “arm's length sale”)

if he or any person appearing to be interested in such shares has been given a section 793 notice and has failed to give the company the information thereby required within 14 days from the date of the notice provided that upon receipt by the company of notice that the shares have been transferred pursuant to any arm's length sale or upon all information required by the section 793 notice being given, such restrictions shall cease to apply in respect of such shares and any dividend withheld shall be paid.

61.2 For the purposes of this Article:-

- (a) a person other than the member holding a share shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if the company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a section 793 notice, from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is, or may be, so interested;
- (b) “interested” shall be construed as it is for the purpose of section 793 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (c) “take-over offer” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 974 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (d) “recognised investment exchange” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 285 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
- (e) “at arm's length” means a transfer to a person who is unconnected with the members and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares;
- (f) “section 793 notice” means a notice served pursuant to section 793A of the Companies Act 2006;

- (g) reference to a person having failed to give the company the information required by a section 793 notice includes (i) reference to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it and (ii) reference to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular.

61.3 Where on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the company gives a section 793 notice to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of sub-clauses 61.1 and 61.2 of this article.

61.4 Any sanctions imposed upon a shareholding in respect of a person having failed to give the company the information required by a section 793 notice will cease to apply 7 days after the earlier of:-

- (a) receipt by the company of notice that the shareholding has been sold to a third party in the manner described above; and
- (b) due compliance to the satisfaction of the company with the notice under Section 793.

61.5 Nothing in these articles shall limit the powers of the company under Section 794 of the Companies Act 2006 or any other powers whatsoever. In order to enforce the restriction in these articles, the directors can give notice to the relevant member requiring him to change identified shares which are in uncertificated form to certificated shares by the time given in the notice and to keep them in certificated form for as long as the directors require. The notice can also say that the relevant member may not change any restricted shares which are certificated shares to uncertificated form. If the member does not comply with the notice, the directors can authorise any person to instruct the operator (as defined in the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001) to change any restricted shares which are in uncertificated form to certificated form in the name and on behalf of the relevant shareholder.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

62. Certificates to be issued except in certain cases

62.1 The company must issue each member with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds. Each certificate sent by the company (or its agent) shall be sent at the risk of the member or other person entitled to the certificate and neither the company (not its agent) shall be responsible for any share certificate lost or destroyed in the course of delivery.

62.2 This article does not apply to:-

- (a) uncertificated shares;
- (b) shares in respect of which a share warrant has been issued; or
- (c) shares in respect of which the Companies Acts permit the company not to issue a certificate.

62.3 Except as otherwise specified in the articles, all certificates must be issued free of charge.

- 33 -

DRAFT

62.4 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

62.5 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

63. Contents and execution of share certificates

63.1 Every certificate must specify:-

- (a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
- (b) the nominal value of those shares;
- (c) the amount paid up on them; and
- (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

63.2 Certificates must:-

- (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal or an official seal which is a facsimile of the company's common seal with the addition on its face of the word "Securities" (a "securities seal"), or
- (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

64. Consolidated share certificates

64.1 When a member's holding of shares of a particular class increases, the company may issue that member with:-

- (a) a single, consolidated certificate in respect of all the shares of a particular class which that member holds, or
- (b) a separate certificate in respect of only those shares by which that member's holding has increased.

64.2 When a member's holding of shares of a particular class is reduced, the company must ensure that the member is issued with one or more certificates in respect of the number of shares held by the member after that reduction. But the company need not (in the absence of a request from the member) issue any new certificate if:-

- (a) all the shares which the member no longer holds as a result of the reduction, and
- (b) none of the shares which the member retains following the reduction, -34-

were, immediately before the reduction, represented by the same certificate.

64.3 A member may request the company, in writing, to replace:-

- (a) the member's separate certificates with a consolidated certificate, or
- (b) the member's consolidated certificate with two or more separate certificates representing such proportion of the shares as the member may specify.

64.4 When the company complies with such a request it may charge such reasonable fee as the directors may decide for doing so.

64.5 A consolidated certificate must not be issued unless any certificates which it is to replace have first been returned to the company for cancellation.

65. Replacement share certificates

65.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a member's shares is:-

- (a) damaged or defaced, or
- (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,

that member is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

65.2 A member exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:-

- (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
- (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
- (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

SHARES NOT HELD IN CERTIFICATED FORM

66. Uncertificated shares

66.1 In this article, "the relevant rules" means:-

- (a) any applicable provision of the Companies Acts about the holding, evidencing of title to, or transfer of shares other than in certificated form, and

- (b) any applicable legislation, rules or other arrangements made under or by virtue of such provision.

66.2 The provisions of this article have effect subject to the relevant rules.

66.3 Any provision of the articles which is inconsistent with the relevant rules must be disregarded, to the extent that it is inconsistent, whenever the relevant rules apply. No provision of these articles shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is in any respect inconsistent with the holding of shares of any class in uncertificated form, or the transfer of title to shares of that class by means of a relevant system, or the relevant rules or the company exercising any of its powers or functions or doing anything through the relevant system concerned.

66.4 Any share or class of shares of the company may be issued or held on such terms, or in such a way, that:-

- (a) title to it or them is not, or must not be, evidenced by a certificate, or
- (b) it or they may or must be transferred wholly or partly without a certificate.

66.5 The directors have power to take such steps as they think fit in relation to:-

- (a) the evidencing of and transfer of title to uncertificated shares, including in connection with the issue of such shares (subject always to the relevant rules and the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned) ;
- (b) any records relating to the holding of uncertificated shares;
- (c) the conversion of certificated shares into uncertificated shares; or
- (d) the conversion of uncertificated shares into certificated shares.

66.6 The company may by notice to the holder of a share require that share:-

- (a) if it is uncertificated, to be converted into certificated form, and
- (b) if it is certificated, to be converted into uncertificated form, to enable it to be dealt with in accordance with the articles.

66.7 If:-

- (a) the articles give the directors power to take action, or require other persons to take action, in order to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of shares, and
- (b) uncertificated shares are subject to that power, but the power is expressed in terms which assume the use of a certificate or other written instrument, the directors may take such action as is necessary or expedient to achieve the same results when exercising that power in relation to uncertificated shares.

66.8 In particular, the company shall be entitled to require the conversion of an uncertificated share into certificated form to enable the company to deal with that share in accordance with any provision in these articles or the relevant rules, the directors may:

- (a) require the holder of that uncertificated share by written notice to change that share to a certificated share within a period specified in the notice and to keep it as a certificated share for so long as the directors require;
- (b) require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to give any instructions necessary to transfer title to that share by means of the relevant system within the period specified in the notice;
- (c) require the holder of that uncertificated share by notice to appoint any person to take any steps, including without limitation the giving of any instructions by means of the relevant system, necessary to transfer that share within the period specified in the notice;
- (d) appoint any person to take any steps, by instruction given through the relevant system concerned or otherwise, in the name of the holder of that share as may be necessary to effect the transfer of that share and these steps will be as effective as if they had been taken by the registered holder of that share;
- (e) take any other action that the directors consider appropriate to achieve the sale transfer, disposal, forfeiture, re-allotment or surrender of that share or otherwise to enforce a lien in respect of that share.

Unless the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 otherwise require or the directors otherwise determine, shares which are issued or created from or in respect of uncertificated shares will be uncertificated shares and shares which are issued or created from or in respect of certificated shares will be certificated shares.

The company can assume that entries on any record of securities kept by it as required by the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 and regularly reconciled with the relevant operator register of securities are a complete and accurate reproduction of the particulars entered in the operator register of securities and therefore the company will not be liable in respect of anything done or not done by or on its behalf in reliance on such assumption; in particular, any provision of these articles which requires or envisages action to be taken in reliance on information contained in the register allows that action to be taken in reliance on information contained any relevant record of securities (as so maintained and reconciled).

66.9 Unless the directors otherwise determine, shares which a member holds in uncertificated form must be treated as separate holdings from any shares which that member holds in certificated form.

66.10 A class of shares must not be treated as two classes simply because some shares of that class are held in certificated form and others are held in uncertificated form.

67. Share warrants

67.1 The directors may issue a share warrant in respect of any fully paid share. 67.2 Share warrants must be:-

- (a) issued in such form, and
- (b) executed in such manner,
as the directors decide.

67.3 A share represented by a share warrant may be transferred by delivery of the warrant representing it.

67.4 The directors may make provision for the payment of dividends in respect of any share represented by a share warrant.

67.5 Subject to the articles, the directors may decide the conditions on which any share warrant is issued. In particular, they may:-

- (a) decide the conditions on which new warrants are to be issued in place of warrants which are damaged or defaced, or said to have been lost, stolen or destroyed;
- (b) decide the conditions on which bearers of warrants are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings;
- (c) decide the conditions subject to which bearers of warrants may surrender their warrant so as to hold their shares in certificated or uncertificated form instead;
and
- (d) vary the conditions of issue of any warrant from time to time, and the bearer of a warrant is subject to the conditions and procedures in force in relation to it, whether or not they were decided or specified before the warrant was issued.

67.6 Subject to the conditions on which the warrants are issued from time to time, bearers of share warrants have the same rights and privileges as they would if their names had been included in the register as holders of the shares represented by their warrants.

67.7 The company must not in any way be bound by or recognise any interest in a share represented by a share warrant other than the absolute right of the bearer of that warrant to that warrant.

PARTLY PAID SHARES

68. Company's lien over partly paid shares

68.1 The company has a lien (“the company's lien”) over every share which is partly paid for any part of:-

- (a) that share's nominal value, and
- (b) any premium at which it was issued,

which has not been paid to the company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it.

68.2 The company's lien over a share:-

- (a) takes priority over any third party's interest in that share, and
- (b) extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share.

68.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

69. Enforcement of the company's lien

69.1 Subject to the provisions of this article, if:-

- (a) a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share, and
- (b) the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide.

69.2 A lien enforcement notice:-

- (a) may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed;

- (b) must specify the share concerned;
- (c) must require payment of the sum payable within 14 days of the notice;
- (d) must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise; and
- (e) must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.

69.3 Where shares are sold under this article:-

- (a) the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser, and
- (b) the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.

69.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied:-

- (a) first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice,
- (b) second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation or a suitable indemnity has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien over the shares before the sale for any money payable in respect of the shares after the date of the lien enforcement notice.

69.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date:-

- (a) is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and
- (b) subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

70. Call notices

70.1 Subject to the articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a “call notice”) to a member requiring the member to pay the company a specified sum of money (a “call”) which is payable in respect of shares which that member holds at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice.

70.2 A call notice:-

- (a) may not require a member to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on that member’s shares (whether as to the share’s nominal value or any amount payable to the company by way of premium);
- (b) must state when and how any call to which it relates it is to be paid; and
- (c) may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments.

70.3 A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before 14 days have passed since the notice was sent.

70.4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may:-

- (a) revoke it wholly or in part, or
- (b) specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice, by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call is made.

71. Liability to pay calls

71.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid.

71.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.

71.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them:-

- (a) to pay calls which are not the same, or
- (b) to pay calls at different times.

72. When call notice need not be issued

72.1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share (whether in respect of nominal value or premium):-

- (a) on allotment;
- (b) on the occurrence of a particular event; or
- (c) on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.

72.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.

73. Failure to comply with call notice: automatic consequences

73.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date:-

- (a) the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person,
- (b) until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate; and
- (c) the company may also recover any costs, charges and expenses secured by reason of the non-payment of any call.

73.2 For the purposes of this article:-

- (a) the “call payment date” is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the “call payment date” is that later date;
- (b) the “relevant rate” is:-
 - (i) the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted;
 - (ii) such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors; or
 - (iii) if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 10 per cent per annum.

73.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 10 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998(a).

73.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

74. Notice of intended forfeiture

A notice of intended forfeiture:-

- (a) may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice;
- (b) must be sent to the holder of that share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise;
- (c) must require payment of the call and any accrued interest by a date which is not less than 14 days after the date of the notice;
- (d) must state how the payment is to be made; and
- (e) must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

75. Directors' power to forfeit shares

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

76. Effect of forfeiture

76.1 Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:-

- (a) all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it, and
- (b) all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company.

76.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles:-

- (a) is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited;
- (b) is deemed to be the property of the company; and
- (c) may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit.

76.3 If a person's shares have been forfeited:-

- (a) the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members;
- (b) that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares;
- (c) that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation;
- (d) that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture); and
- (e) the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.

76.4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit.

77. Procedure following forfeiture

77.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer.

77.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date:-

- (a) is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and
- (b) subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

77.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.

77.4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which:-

- (a) was, or would have become, payable, and
- (b) had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

78. Surrender of shares

78.1 A member may surrender any share:-

- (a) in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture;
- (b) which the directors may forfeit; or
- (c) which has been forfeited.

78.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share.

78.3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share.

78.4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

79. Transfer of shares

Subject to the provisions of these articles and the Companies Acts, any member may transfer all or any of his shares.

80. Transfers of certificated shares

80.1 Certificated shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed or authenticated under hand or in any other manner acceptable to the directors and permitted by law by or on behalf of:-

- (a) the transferor, and
- (b) (if any of the shares is partly paid) the transferee.

80.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

80.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

80.4 The transferor remains the holder of a certificated share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

80.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share if:-

- (a) the share is not fully paid;
- (b) the transfer is not lodged at the company's registered office or such other place as the directors have appointed;
- (c) the transfer is not duly stamped;
- (d) the instrument transfer, duly stamped (if stampable), is not accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates, or such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the transferor's right to make the transfer, or evidence of the right of someone other than the transferor to make the transfer on the transferor's behalf;
- (e) the transfer is in respect of more than one class of share; or
- (f) the transfer is in favour of more than four transferees.

80.6 If the directors refuse to register the transfer of a share, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

81. Transfer of uncertificated shares

A transfer of an uncertificated share must not be registered if it is in favour of more than four transferees.

82. Director discretion to register uncertificated shares

In respect of a share held in uncertificated form, the directors may only register or refuse to register the transfer of such a share in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 (as amended, consolidated, and restated from time to time).

83. Procedure upon refusal of registration

If the directors refuse to register the transfer of a share, they shall as soon as practicable and in any event within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company (in the case of a transfer of a share in certified form) or the date on which the operator instruction was received by the company (in the case of shares held in uncertificated form) give notice of refusal to the transferee together with reasons for the refusal and (in the case of a transfer of share in certificated form) the instrument of transfer, unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent. The directors shall send to the transferee such further information about the reasons for the refusal as the transferee may reasonably request.

84. Transmission of shares

84.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

84.2 Nothing in these articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member.

85. Transmittees' rights

85.1 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:-

- (a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
- (b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

85.2 But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

86. Exercise of transmittees' rights

86.1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

86.2 If the share is a certificated share and a transmittee wishes to have it transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

86.3 If the share is an uncertificated share and the transmittee wishes to have it transferred to another person, the transmittee must—

- (a) procure that all appropriate instructions are given to effect the transfer, or
- (b) procure that the uncertificated share is changed into certificated form and then execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

86.4 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

86.5 The directors may at any time give notice requesting any transmittee to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share to another person and, if the notice is not complied with within 60 days of service, the directors may withhold payment of any dividend and other moneys payable upon or in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

87. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a member in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the member before the transmittee's name (or the name of any person(s) named as the trustee(s) in an instrument of transfer executed under article 86.2 or 86.3) has been entered in the register of members.

CONSOLIDATION OF SHARES

88. Procedure for disposing of fractions of shares

88.1 This article applies where:-

- (a) there has been a consolidation or division of shares, and
- (b) as a result, members are entitled to fractions of shares.

88.2 The directors may:-

- (a) sell the shares representing the fractions to any person including the company for the best price reasonably obtainable;
- (b) in the case of a certificated share, authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser; and
- (c) distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares.

88.3 Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the directors, that member's portion may be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

88.4 The person to whom the shares are transferred is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions.

88.5 The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale.

DISTRIBUTIONS

89. Procedure for declaring dividends

89.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and of these articles, the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

89.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

89.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with members' respective rights.

89.4 Unless the members' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

89.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.

89.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

89.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

90. Calculation of dividends

90.1 Except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:-

- (a) declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid, and
- (b) apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.

90.2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date or event, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.

90.3 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

91. Payment of dividends and other distributions

91.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:-

- (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient in writing;
- (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient in writing;
- (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified in writing; or
- (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient in writing.

91.2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:-

- (a) the holder of the share; or
- (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
- (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

91.3 Unless the terms of issue of a share provide otherwise, dividends may be paid or declared in any currency. The directors may agree with a member:

- (a) that dividends declared or which become due on his shares in one currency will be paid or satisfied in another currency;
- (b) the basis of conversion is to be applied;
- (c) how and when the amount to be paid in the other currency will be calculated and paid; and
- (d) whether the company or any other person will bear the costs of conversion.

92. Payment as good discharge

Payment of a cheque or similar financial instrument by the banker upon whom it is drawn or debiting of the company's account in respect of a bank or funds transfer or, in the case of shares in uncertificated form, the making of payment in accordance with the facilities and requirements of a relevant system shall be a good discharge to the company.

93. Cheques etc to be at sole risk

Every cheque, bank, building society or funds transfer or payment made by any other method will be sent out at the sole risk of the distribution recipient.

94. Deductions from distributions in respect of sums owed to the company

94.1 If:-

- (a) a share is subject to the company's lien, and
- (b) the directors are entitled to issue a lien enforcement notice in respect of it,

they may, instead of issuing a lien enforcement notice, deduct from any dividend or other sum payable in respect of the share any sum of money which is payable to the company in respect of that share to the extent that they are entitled to require payment under a lien enforcement notice.

94.2 Money so deducted must be used to pay any of the sums payable in respect of that share. 94.3

The company must notify the distribution recipient in writing of:-

- (a) the fact and amount of any such deduction;
- (b) any non-payment of a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share resulting from any such deduction; and
- (c) how the money deducted has been applied.

95. No interest on distributions

The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:-

- (a) the terms on which the share was issued, or
- (b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

96. Unclaimed distributions and untraced shareholders

96.1 All dividends or other sums which are:-

- (a) payable in respect of shares, and
- (b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

96.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

96.3 The company shall be entitled to sell at such time and price and on such terms as the directors may determine, any share of a member or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission if and provided that:-

- (a) for a period of 12 years no cheque, warrant or order sent by the company in the manner authorised by these articles in respect of the share in question has been cashed and no communication has been received by the company from the member or the person entitled by transmission; provided that, in such period of 12 years, at least three dividends whether interim or final on or in respect of the share in question have become payable and no such dividend during that period has been claimed; , and
- (b) the company has, on or after expiration of the said period of 12 years sent a notice to the registered address of the member stating its intention to sell such share; (before sending such a notice to the member, the Company must have used such efforts as it considers reasonable to trace the member; and
- (c) the company has not, during the further period of three months after sending the notice referred to in article 96.3(b) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale, received any communication from the member or person entitled by transmission.

96.4 If, during any 12 year period or three month period referred to in articles 96.3(c) and 96.3(c) of the preceding article, further shares have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of such 12 year period or of any subsequently issued during such periods and all the other requirements of such article have been satisfied in respect of the further shares, the company may also sell such further shares.

96.5 To give effect to any sale pursuant to the previous two articles, the directors may authorise any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer of the said share and such instrument of transfer shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the registered holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, such share. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating thereto. The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the company which shall be obliged to account to the former member or other person previously entitled as aforesaid for an amount equal to such net proceeds and shall enter the name of such former member or other person in the books of the company as a creditor for such amount (the "Debt").

96.6 No trust shall be created in respect of the Debt, no interest shall be payable in respect of the same and the company shall not be required to account for any money earned on the net proceeds, which may be employed in the business of the company or invested in such investments (other than shares of the company or its holding company (if any)) as the directors may from time to time think fit. If no valid claim for the Debt has been received by the company during the period of six years from the date on which the relevant share was sold by the company, such Debt will be extinguished.

96.7 If either (i) on two consecutive occasions cheques, warrants or orders in payment of dividends or other monies payable in respect of any share have been sent through the post or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of these articles but have been returned undelivered or left uncashed during the periods for which the same are valid or any transfer by bank or other funds transfer system has not been satisfied; or (ii) following one such occasion reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new postal address or account of the registered holder, the company need not thereafter despatch further cheques, warrants or orders and need not thereafter transfer any sum (as the case may be) in payment of dividends or other monies payable in respect of the share in question until the member or other person entitled thereto shall have communicated with the company and supplied in writing to the office an address or account for the purpose.

97. Non-cash distributions

97.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

97.2 If the shares in respect of which such a non-cash distribution is paid are uncertificated, any shares in the company which are issued as a non-cash distribution in respect of them must be uncertificated.

97.3 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution (including, where fractional entitlements cease):-

- (a) fixing the value of any assets;

- (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and

6697680

- 51 -

- (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

97.4 In the event that any member is entitled to a fractional entitlement of any non-cash assets, the directors may:-

- (a) sell the shares representing the fractions to any person including the company for the best price reasonably obtainable;
- (b) in the case of a certificated share, authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser; and
- (c) distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares.

Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the directors, that member's portion may be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

98. Dividends may be satisfied in shares

98.1 The directors may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the company, offer members the right to elect to receive in respect of all or part of their holdings of shares additional shares in the company, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of all or part of such dividend or dividends whether interim or final and (subject to the following provisions of this article) upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be specified in such ordinary resolution and otherwise as the directors may determine. Any such resolution may specify a particular dividend and/or all of any dividends (or part of such dividends) declared or paid within a specified period, but no such period may end later than the beginning of the annual general meeting in the calendar year next following the date on which such ordinary resolution is passed.

98.2 When any such right of election is offered to members pursuant to this article, the directors shall make such offer to such holders in writing (conditionally if the necessary ordinary resolution has yet to be passed, upon such resolution being passed) and shall make available to or provide such holders with forms of election (in such form as the directors may approve) whereby such holders may exercise such right and shall notify such holders of the procedure to be followed and of the place at which and the latest date and time by which, duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective.

98.3 Each member who elects to receive additional shares under a right offered to him pursuant to this article shall be entitled to receive such whole number of additional shares as is as nearly as possible equal in value (calculated on the basis of the market value of an additional share) to (but not in excess of) the cash amount that such holder would otherwise have received by way of dividend. For the purposes of this article, the "Market Value" of an additional share shall be the average of the prices at which business is done in the shares (derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange) on such five consecutive dealing days as the directors shall determine (save that the first of such dealing days shall be on or after the day when the issued ordinary shares in the company are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend, unless no business is done during such dealing days, when in that case the first of such dealing days should be the latest practicable date at least five days prior to the date when the issued shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend when business is done in the shares) or the nominal value of a share (whichever is the higher).

98.4 Following an election by members in accordance with this article, the relevant dividend (or that part of a dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on the shares issued pursuant to the election but in lieu thereof, the directors shall capitalise out of any undistributed profits of the company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or out of any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital reserves (including any capital redemption reserve), as the directors may determine a sum equal to the aggregate nominal value of the number of additional shares required to be allotted to the holders of shares who have made such election and shall apply such sum in paying up in full such number of additional shares and shall allot and distribute the same to and amongst such holders on the basis set out in article 98.3 of this article save that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall be subject to any right of the directors under these articles to retain any dividend or other monies payable on or in respect of the shares of a particular member.

98.5 The additional shares so allotted shall rank pari passu with the fully paid shares in the company then in issue save that they shall not be entitled to participate in the dividend in relation to which the relevant election was made.

98.6 A resolution of the directors capitalising any part of the reserves or profits hereinbefore mentioned shall have the same effect as if such capitalisation had been declared by ordinary resolution of the company in accordance with these articles and in relation to any such capitalisation the directors may exercise all the powers, other than the powers to allot fractional shares, conferred on them by article 98.4 without the need for any such ordinary resolution.

98.7 The directors may at their discretion make any rights of election offered pursuant to this article subject to such exclusions or arrangements as they may consider necessary or expedient to deal with any legal or other difficulties which would or may otherwise arise under laws of, or the requirements of any recognised regulatory body or any stock exchange in, any territory.

98.8 Every duly effected election shall be binding on every successor in title to the shares or any of the members who have effected the same.

99. Waiver of distributions

Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:-

- (a) the share has more than one holder, or
- (b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

100. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

100.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:-

- (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and
- (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

100.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:-

- (a) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
- (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

100.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

100.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied:-

- (a) in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled, or
- (b) in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct; or
- (c) in the absence of any such specification or determination, as the directors may determine.

100.5 Subject to the articles the directors may:-

- (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 100.3 and 100.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
