Metaphysical Mecca Mystic Journey Brings More Meditation and Crystals to Venice

AUGUST 3, 2017 by DANIELLE DIRECTO-MESTON

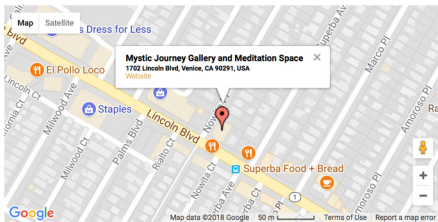

Mystic Journey has been a westside mecca for spreading metaphysical knowledge and esoteric healing since debuted on Abbot Kinney nearly a decade ago, and this summer marks a new age for the Venice bookstore. The boutique has expanded its good vibes to Lincoln Boulevard, where it recently opened a crystal and art gallery and space for meditation and yoga.

Open as of the end of June, the 3,200-square-foot space showcases museum-quality, ethically-mined crystals from Brazil and Uruguay (we're told owner Jeffrey Segal personally visited the mines), some of which weigh up to 2,000 pounds. Alongside rare gems, the gallery also features art by Los Angeles-based talents curated by local art curator Darcie Odom.

As far as classes, Mystic Journey 2.0 offers a range of wellness sessions ($24 and up), including meditations focusing on mindful equilibrium and chakra balancing, kundalini yoga and hatha vinyasa yoga, sound baths, and more.

Head over to Mystic Journey's website for the full schedule of classes, wellness events, and art happenings, scroll through the gallery to take a peek inside the calm and dreamy new space, and see below for the exact address and hours.
