KEEP CALM AND DO PROZORRO

camera icon The ProZorro public procurement system is a rare example of the Ukrainian government working with civil society partners to achieve meaningful post-Maidan change and clamp down on long-standing corrupt practices

Ukraine's public procurement sector has long been a byword for corruption, with an estimated UAH 50 billion (USD 2 billion) lost annually through shady deals and limited competition. This makes the recent success of the ProZorro electronic procurement system all the more remarkable. This transparency tool is one of the fruits of the Euromaidan Revolution and serves as a model for cooperation between government and civil society. At
