HOW IS AN ESSAY SCORED

We use a scoring rubric to judge each essay. Four is the highest score an essay can receive from one reader. Since each essay is read by four readers, the maximum score an essay can receive is a 16.

Score	Description
4	Clearly addresses the writing task, demonstrates a clear understanding of purpose, maintains a consistent point of focus, organizational structure and contains few, if any, errors in the conventions of the English language (grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling).
3	Demonstrates a general understanding of purpose, addresses all parts of the writing task, few errors in conventions of the English language.
2	Addresses only part of the writing task, demonstrates little understanding of purpose, and contains several errors in the conventions of the English language.
1	Addresses only one part of the writing task, demonstrates no understanding of purpose, contains serious errors in the conventions of the English language.

DISBURSEMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Awarded Recipients are required to submit a Scholarship Requisition form provided by NCRF, proof of full-time enrollment at a 4-year college and recipients class schedule to: scholarship@thecollegeexpo.org or fax 909-396-0932. NCRF's disbursement(s) will be sent in one or more installments to the college/university provided on the Scholarship Requisition form on behalf of the recipient.

RECIPIENTS OBLIGATIONS

A student on a disbursement schedule must maintain a 2.0 GPA, provide proof of full-time enrollment each semester, up to date transcripts, and/or other relevant information. Recipient must notify NCRF of any changes to the Scholarship Requisition Form once submitted.

REVISIONS

NCRF reserves the right to review the conditions, procedures and may make changes to this scholarship program at any time including termination of the program.
