Empower your camper with music this summer at SJSM!

This unique camp experience is open to budding musicians of any level. No prior instruction or experience is required.

Each camper will be encouraged to express their creative side by studying two instruments, participating in interactive games, designing inspiring art projects, and making music with new friends.

Specialized lessons and classes will focus on developing technique, expression, and an understanding of history and theory, while ensembles will develop artistry and magnify newfound camaraderie. Whether your camper is a beginner or an advanced musician, SJSM will enhance their curiosity and stir their imagination!

With a dedicated team of talented educators, SJSM prides itself in offering excellence in music education within a collaborative, safe, and supportive environment designed to uplift and embolden young students.
