

Good practice policy

Please read this Good practice policy, we recommend that you read this before using FLUX powered by Spacecubed. The Good practice policy is in reference to how members are to act within the space, this is to ensure all members are comfortable within the community.

You agree to comply with all applicable rules of the Good practice policy.

- You may not touch, move or take members equipment
- Distribute computer viruses, worms, Trojan horses or other malicious code to members hardware
- Infringing the intellectual property or other proprietary rights of others
- Excessive printing that may be considered, by us, as outside the usual member allowance of 200 pages per person per month. If individuals require more printing allowance we can arrange this to your account with prior notice to the membership coordinator.
- You must be conscious of other members, no loud and distracting behaviour that may be considered by us as disturbing other members.

Your services may be suspended or terminated upon any violation of this policy within reason.

To report a violation of this policy, please contact us. We reserve the right to change this policy at any given time, of which you will be promptly updated.
