

PUBLIC NOTICE

The City of Burkburnett is closing its doors to foot traffic at City Hall, Police Department, Municipal Court, and the Library for an undetermined amount of time as gatherings of people are being discouraged by public health officials. All City venues can still be accessed for services via phone or online. The Library will still accept book reservations online and place the book for pickup in the foyer.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue to provide essential services safely. For further information, please call City Hall at (940) 569-2263.
