Arts & History Passport
Passeport Art et Histoire
This passport is your guide to the sixteen museums and cultural sites located throughout the Adirondack Coast.

Ce passeport est votre guide pour les seize musées et sites culturels de la Côte Adirondack.

The Adirondack Coast’s rich history is celebrated and highlighted by our wonderful museums. Check out the quick version of our story below.

1609
Samuel de Champlain lays eyes on Lake Champlain.

1776
Battle of Valcour is fought on Lake Champlain during the American Revolution.

1810
Henry Delord moves to Plattsburgh and builds the Federal-style house that still exists today.

1814
The Battles at Plattsburgh are won by Commodore Thomas Macdonough and General Alexander Macomb during the War of 1812.

1844
The Dannemora prison building is built by the hands of the inmates interned there, and starts as a mining prison.

1850's
The Champlain line of the Underground Railroad plays a major role in getting freedom seekers safely into Canada.

1890
The height of the iron boom in Lyon Mountain.

1903
William and Alice Miner return home to Chazy, NY and forever change our area with projects like the Hospital and Chazy Central Rural School.

1915-1917
Bankers, businessmen, clergy, journalists and students flock to the Plattsburgh Military Reservation to pursue the “Plattsburgh Idea”, a six week military training camp that became the basis for what is now the ROTC Program.

1995
The Historic Plattsburgh Air Force Base closes after 180 years of operation. The Old Base Museum Campus now helps to tell its story!
1 Alice T. Miner Museum

This fifteen-room Colonial Revival museum houses Alice T. Miner’s collection of furniture, ceramics, glass, samplers, silhouettes, quilts, dolls, and more, most from the 18th and 19th centuries. The museum also displays artifacts related to Alice and William Miner’s life and philanthropic work in the North Country.

Ce musée néocolonial de quinze salles abrite la collection de meubles d’Alice T. Miner. On y trouve également des céramiques, du verre, des échantillons de tissus, des silhouettes, des courtepointes, des poupées et bien plus encore, pour la plupart provenant du XVIIIe et XIXe siècles. Le musée expose également des artefacts liés à la vie d’Alice et de William Miner et à ses œuvres philanthropiques dans le pays du Nord.

Fun Fact

Did you know that the Bluff Point Lighthouse is one of the only lighthouses on Lake Champlain to be listed on the National Register of Historic Places? Overlooking the site of one of the most important naval battles of the American Revolution (AKA the Battle of Valcour), the Lighthouse was built for $15,000 and placed into service in the spring of 1874. Its charge was to guide ships through the channel running between its location on Valcour Island and the New York shore.
