Huapai District School Centennial

Merchandise

To help celebrate Huapai District School turning 100, we have some terrific branded clothing for sale.

To involve the children in this significant milestone the polo shirt and t-shirt can be worn as part of the school uniform* from now on and through the centennial year.

Orders are being taken now and should be available by mid-term.

Either return the following Order Form to the office or scan and email to hdscentennial@gmail.com

Visit our centennial website www.HDS100.nz for event details, registration, and tickets to the evening events.

* Please note the caps and hoodie are not to be worn to school as part of the school uniform.
