

AICPA Independence Rules:
Advisory Services
June 18, 2020
11 am ET

Designed for non-CPAs and non-auditors, and CPAs in need of a refresher, this webinar helps you get up-to-speed on the AICPA independence rules for providing advisory services to your firm's attest clients. You'll learn which services are addressed in the AICPA Code, where the lines are drawn between permitted and prohibited services and when judgment is required.

After completing this course, you will be able to:

- recall the AICPA's general requirements for providing advisory services to attest clients,
- identify additional independence rules that apply to your client, and
- distinguish services that impair independence from those that do not pose such threats.

Participants will earn 1.5 CPE credits

Field of Study: Regulatory Ethics

Prerequisites: None

Who should attend: Professionals who need to understand the AICPA independence requirements for providing nonattest services to attest clients

Advance preparation: None

Program Level: Basic

Delivery Method: Group Internet Based

To register for this course, see https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_iHmN-NTXSHKAIJQ5DP3F2w.

To learn about refund, complaint and cancellation policies, please visit our web site at www.auditconduct.com/webinars or contact Audit Conduct at 631.849.1779 or callen@auditconduct.com.

Audit Conduct LLC is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org.