

2021

steps for family growth

What is one way that we need to grow spiritually this year?

What is one thing we could do to stretch our faith this year?

What big thing do we want to pray for this year?

Who do we want to bless this year? How will we bless them?

p.s. some assembly required

share a meal together and talk through these questions