Help to Help has received a generous donation in memory of

---

The donation enables higher education for university students in Tanzania and Uganda who dream of becoming doctors, nurses, teachers and engineers.

With an education, Help to Help's students can make a big difference for themselves, their families and their communities for many years to come.

Help to Help provides scholarships for higher education for promising youth in East Africa and bridges the gap between students and the labour market through practical trainings and networks
