

JOB OPPORTUNITY

QUALITY TECHNICIAN (PRODUCT TESTING)

Mi3 Limited is currently looking for a Quality Technician. If you want to apply for this position please submit your CV and a Cover Letter that demonstrates why you're a great fit for this new challenge to jobs@mi-3.co.uk.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Performing timely goods in inspection testing.
- Perform WIP and finished goods testing where required by the specification, QP or FPS.
- Perform testing as required by projects, validation and other non-routine sampling / activities.
- Responsible for keeping the lab and equipment clean and tidy.
- Work with facilities to ensure equipment is calibrated.
- Aid in the development and validation of test methods if required by a project or process.
- Aid in the processes of validating lab equipment if required.
- Responsible for raising QERs and gathering first-on-scene information.
- Perform timely failure investigations and CAPA actions / own and drive NCs and CAPA on SME topics.
- Responsible for the timely escalation of issues to immediate supervisor and Quality Manager.
- Internal auditor as required by the schedule.
- For all tasks, make suggestions for continuous improvement of processes and implement where applicable / requested to do so.
- Adhere to QMS, HSE policies and procedures and all other Mi3 policies and procedures at all times.
- Perform COSHH and risk assessments for lab-based equipment, materials and processes with the help of SMEs.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE (ESSENTIAL)

- HNC, A' Level or similar in scientific discipline or lab-based program.
- Experience in a similar role within a Medical Device Manufacturing environment or within a GLP environment ~1+yrs. Demonstrable knowledge of ISO 13485.
- Intermediate level skills with Microsoft Office (Outlook, Word, Excel).
- Good organisational skills.
- Ability to work effectively and independently with minimal guidance in a fast paced environment.
- Good communication and diplomacy skills.
- Demonstrates analytical thinking.
- Detail oriented.
- Self-starter.
- Time management skills including multi-tasking competing priorities as needed.
- Having a positive attitude, a desire to learn and be challenged.
- Demonstrated self-motivation and ethical behaviour.