

Guess Who?

Use the clues below to work out who the historical figures are.

See if you can get all six!

We'll reveal the answers towards the end of the summer holidays.

PERSON 1

I am French

I was crowned King of England on Christmas day

I ordered many castles, including part of the Tower of London, to be built

My image can be found on the Bayeux Tapestry, in Normandy

PERSON 2

Il was born in 1749 and trained as a Doctor

I am from Gloucestershire, where there are a lot of dairy farms

This helped me to develop the worlds first vaccine

Eventually, the British government made this vaccination free and compulsory!

PERSON 3

I was born in 1805 and died in 1881

I was a British-Jamaican nurse

I knew lots about Caribbean herbal remedies

I travelled to the Crimea, during the Crimean war, and set up what was known as the 'British hotel' to nurse injured soldiers back to heath

In 2004 I was voted the greatest Black-Briton

PERSON 4

My surname is Stuart and I am a Scot

My mother was executed by the previous Queen of England

I believed that God had given my the right to be King and that everyone should do only as I said

There was a plot, led by a man called Guido, to blow myself and Parliament up!

PERSON 5

My mother was married to Henry VIII

I married the King of Spain

I have no children

I am a very religious Catholic

I have had a lot of people burnt at the stake for being a Protestant

PERSON 6

I am from Montgomery, in the state of Alabama

In 1955, I refused to give up my seat on the bus for a white person and was arrested

This led to a city-wide boycott of the buses in Montgomery

Some have argued that my actions started the American Civil Rights Movement
