Newsletter 23rd April 2020

Welcome back after the Easter break and these unusual times of extended social distancing and isolation. All the staff send our families the lots of love and warmest wishes, we miss you all very much. We will ensure we keep in touch, so expect a phone call over the next week or two. If you want to get in touch with us remember to directly email your year group e.g. Year6@ccuapprimary.co.uk, the office or follow us on Facebook or Twitter.

We hope that you are settling into your daily learning routines, remember it is important that it works for you, but consistent routines are important for behaviour and wellbeing. Take a look at the information on this link to help you plan your day -https://educationendowmentfoundation.org.uk/public/files/Publications/Covid-19_Resources/Resources_for_parents/Supporting_home_learning_routines_-_Planning_the_day.pdf?fbclid=IwAR3JwZ3FGcGk__XnFjkRgWFqI12YIuvYSndIt_nSNxVS4X-uePp33bVCJxQ

We suggest making a simple timetable of activities for your day, this video gives you some useful suggestions for a daily routine -https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MO9SDGRgi3c&feature=emb_title

Your new learning can be found every Monday in your year group folder under the Learning from Home tab in the menu on our website <https://www.ccuapprimary.co.uk/>. The BBC have also provided daily online learning <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>.

Guidance for parents and carers on supporting their children's education

The Department for Education has published information, guidance and support for parents and carers of children who are learning at home during the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak: Guidance on helping children aged 2 to 4 <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/help-children-aged-2-to-4-to-learn-at-home-during-coronavirus-covid-19> Guidance on helping primary school aged children <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/help-primary-school-children-continue-their-education-during-coronavirus-covid-19>

Guidance on helping children with special educational needs and disabilities <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/help-children-with-send-continue-their-education-during-coronavirus-covid-19>

Free School Meals

If you are entitled to free school meals there will be hampers available to pick up from the school office every Thursday, email Mrs Thomas at office@ccuapprimary.co.uk for more information. If you are struggling to pick these up please let her know and we will ask a member of staff to, safely, drop it off.

Reading

It is really important that your child reads daily. We have given out lots of reading books for you to use, but if you need more then please speak directly to your teacher via the class email. There are lots of fabulous reading resources available online too – <https://stories.audible.com/start-listen> <https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page> <https://www.getepic.com/>

Remember if you are really struggling there is help out there for you, please just ask. You can call school or the Local Welfare Support Team on 0113 376 0330.

Take care and stay safe.
