We just had a blast doing the #AngelBandProject #RockForSurvivors Air Guitar Challenge. We also made a donation to support the agency's music therapy services. We challenge the Jones Family to join us in the fun!

Our entire office took the #RockForSurvivors Air Guitar Challenge because we support the music therapy work the #AngelBandProject does to support survivors of sexual violence. We ask our customers and vendors to donate and join in the fun by showing us that you have Heart and can rock like a Barracuda!
