Re: Michael Morpurgo: A Lifetime in Stories

Dear Parents/Carers

I am writing to make you aware of a forthcoming Michael Morpurgo exhibition at Leeds City Museum, which runs from the 8th February – 16th June 2019.

Michael Morpurgo is an author much loved by children and adults alike. His books are often studied in our English sessions. I know, across school, different classes previously read a range of Michael Morpurgo books: Friend or Foe, Running Wild, Cool and War Horse. Furthermore, Year 6 will be studying the fantastic Kensuke's Kingdom soon!

Hopefully you will have chance to visit and enjoy the exhibition! Please see the below link if you'd like further information.

Any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Kind regards
