CHARITY & SPONSORSHIP

Elliot Scott Group is always keen on finding ways to give back to local charities, organisations and sports teams.

One of the charities that Elliot Scott Group are proud to support is Crawley Open House. Established in 1982 Crawley Open House is a local charity that offers accommodation, food and support to homeless people in our local area. In the past, Elliot Scott Group has given donations of food that they have been short on. In addition to this, they have also taken part in the Big Sleepout and donated a financial gift to help them continue their amazing work.

As well as all of the charity work they do they are also sponsors of some local football teams which includes Forest Row, Alfold, Cuckfield Cosmos and Crawley Town.

We understand what pressures are now put upon our community and the homeless as a result of the pandemic, so we were keen to help the amazing work Crawley Open House do.

Scott Burns, Group Director

Here at Elliot Scott Group, we are all football fans. Investing in local teams is something we strongly believe in. I remember the difficulties my managers would have trying to generate money for the clubs to keep them going season after season, so I'm happy that we can help in some way.

Elliot Benton, Group Director
