

DATE: May 22, 2020

To: OPRA Data feed Subscribers

On May 22, 2020, at approximately 9:51:13 am, a Network Interface Card (“NIC”) failure on one OPRA output server resulted in the temporary queuing of both outbound and inbound OPRA quotes and trades. The redundant NIC on the impacted server automatically recovered, queues drained in less than 30 seconds, and normal processing resumed.