

Iditarod Events Calendar 2020

March 2020 • Nome, Alaska • There's No Place Like Nome!

Iditarod looks a little different this year!

Responding to guidance from public health officials regarding the COVID-19 virus, the city of Nome has closed its public facilities through March 31.

State recommendations for the general public

- » Stay home if you are sick with a respiratory illness. If you develop a fever, stay home for at least 24 hours after the fever subsides.
- » Stay at least 6 feet from anyone coughing, sneezing, or feeling feverish.
- » Avoid large gatherings and crowded places.
- » Avoid shaking hands and hugging.

State of Alaska recommendations for high-risk groups

- » This group includes ages 60 and over, and those with underlying medical conditions such as heart disease, lung disease, diabetes, or other immune compromising illnesses.
- » When out in public, try to maintain at least 6 feet distance from people—especially from people who are sick.
- » Avoid crowds as much as possible, especially large gatherings.
