

Road
Transportation
Industry in

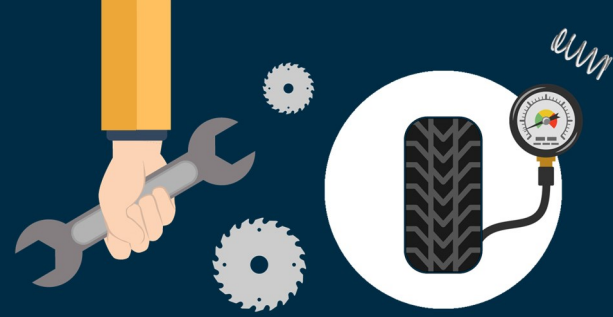

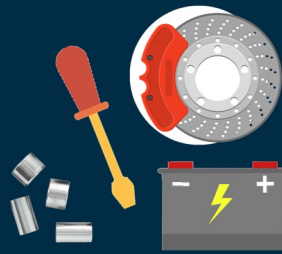

ATLANTIC
CANADA

400,000+

People Employed by Road Transportation
Industry in Canada

MECHANIC & SERVICE TECHNICIAN

What Our Industry Offers

- Great Pay & Benefits
- Job Security
- Work With Awesome People
- Opportunities to Train, Grow, Advance
- Committed & Award Winning Employers

Did You Know...

90%+ of all goods ordered online and in-person

are moved by sophisticated logistics systems and professional drivers using semi-automated trucks.

Mechanics and Service Technicians are highly skilled professionals. They integrate new equipment, technologies, and service techniques that improve performance, reduce emissions, and ensure safe performance of vehicles.

The Future is in Your Hands

Truck & Coach Technician

- Maintain mechanical components of trucks, tractors, trailers
- Licensed technician designation earned through apprenticeship training program

Truck & Trailer Service Technician

- Inspect, repair, overhauls brake and electrical systems on trailers

Wheel Installer & Tire Technician

- Ensure trucks and trailers are equipped with safe, properly functioning wheels and tires

Parts Supply & Control

- Ensure necessary parts are available
- Maintain inventory and purchase parts from suppliers

Shop Floor Supervisor

- Prioritize jobs, co-ordinate team and individual work schedules
- Inspect work of mechanics and technicians
- Make decisions that ensure optimum performance

Maintenance Manager

- Ensure that maintenance function is efficient and effective
- Develop, implement preventative maintenance programs
- Manage teams

FAQs

Can I visit companies to see what they do? Yes. Contact APTA. We would love to arrange a visit.

Do companies provide mentorship? Absolutely. Our members value their employees and are committed to helping them succeed and grow.

Get Started

Contact THRSC or APTA today!

