

PROFESSIONAL TRUCK DRIVER OF THE MONTH NOVEMBER 2019 Maurice LeBlanc

About the Driver

Maurice LeBlanc has been a professional driver for 40 years, all of which have been with Armour Transportation Systems. Maurice displays a very high level of professionalism with every person he deals with. His friendly, get-it-done attitude not only benefits their customers, but the entire team that surrounds him. His is a true example of a professional driver.

Congratulations Maurice!

About the Company

Armour Transportation Systems

Armour Transportation Systems was founded by Mr. Gordon Armour in the early 1940's, using his truck to haul hay and gravel out of Taylor Village, about 20 miles outside of Moncton, NB. In 1966, Wesley Armour, President & CEO, joined the company. They had 10 straight trucks and 11 employees.

Today, through strategic alliances with other major carriers, Armour has grown to service all of Canada, the United States, Mexico, and beyond. One of Canada's leading transportation specialists with over 1,900 employees, 26 terminals and more than 4,000 pieces of equipment.
