Guide

Help you follow through and transform ideas into real results for you & your team.

Why book Lincoln?

Lincoln brings a sense of fun, adventure & skill to his presentations.

He digs deep to reveal what stifles teams & individuals from expressing their potential.

Whether it's in a team or personal environment, Lincoln guides the group with tools and 'hacks' to face everyday challenges effortlessly.

He will provide a platform to have your people open to learning, comfortable enough to be open, honest & on track with the event outcomes.

"As always, Lincoln raised and maintained the energy in the room, quickly connecting with individual participants. Everyone was still 'on their high' the next day and really reflected on how they show up and push themselves each day." – Sandy, CBA

"Lincoln you thrilled us, educated us and reminded us of the simple ways to improve our lives, thank you."

– Australian Podiatry Association

If we took away your job title, plush office & salary, why would anyone follow you?

» Let's work together to establish what your success looks like & turn it into results.

Peak Teams Performance Programme

This series of interactive presentations probe deeply in a supportive and skilled way to positively ignite your people, reveal team dysfunctions and break patterns that hold your team back. The programme includes:

- Mindset: How to get and remain focussed, calm & committed to your teams' success.
- Culture: Getting on & getting great results, with people who aren't like you.
- Everybody leads: How your behaviour amplifies or crushes team success.
- Trust as currency: How trust impacts the bottom line, team performance and 'fun' internally and externally with customers and suppliers.
- Get on the bus: Values alignment.
- Expand your comfort zone: How this can improve life beyond work.
- Energy as a business: Maintain energy and it will become your competitive advantage.
- How to make time: Improving skill and clarity can multiply the value of your time.
- Action steps: I'm not just here to talk, I'm here to inspire your people to return home with relentless enthusiasm, armed to use their new knowledge as a 'secret weapon'.

Leadership Performance Programme

Why would anyone follow you?

We are all masters of self-delusion & we don't know what we don't know.

This program is going to reveal what you don't know that's hurting you in life & your career. It comes in 3 versions:

1. Soft
2. Medium
3. Courageous.

Lincoln doesn't do the Soft version.

Medium for understanding your leadership team as it is today.

Courageous; if you're up for it, Lincoln would love to work with you.

It's about understanding the best way forward for you and your leadership team. This program digs deep, revealing more of you to you & to the group, showcasing your strengths & revealing some of your internal & behavioural saboteurs. The workshop finishes off with a roadmap of action steps that mitigate any resistance to success.

Conference MC and Facilitator

The most important role for your conference, if done well, is a conference MC.

It's ok, you can get 'John from accounts' to do it, because he is fun & loves doing it, but..."skill multiplies the value of time". Let's make the most out of your day.

There are 3 types of conference MC's

1. Funny 'ha ha'
2. Facilitator MC
3. A combination of the above

Lincoln brings all 3 styles, authenticity and professionalism to your event, not only ensuring people have a good time, but that they get value out of the time that they spend at the conference. Lincoln probes the group to take the key learnings from the day and hold each other accountable to guarantee results.

Lincoln particularly enjoy overseas conferences at exotic locations and 5 star resorts.

Are you ready?
Let's create an energising and memorable event together.
