VARY COURSE CONTENT

Curriculum choices, including content emphases, examples, perspectives, scholars, and illustrations, carry explicit messages about whose knowledge is valued. Use this checklist to track and note how you have diversified your content.

☐ I have included scholars with various identities in my course and have a strategy for showing students who scholars are.

☐ I have included a set of topics from which I can extrapolate diverse examples and problems.

☐ I have included concepts, ideas, and problems that draw upon the concerns of communities and scholars who are not typically focused upon.

☐ I have incorporated a variety of texts that link directly to learning goals for my course.

☐ I have explored diverse scholarship in my field in order to develop a set of learning goals that reflect a range of knowledge and disciplinary concerns.
