

The Lawyers Assistance Program Presents:

“Boundaries for Lawyers”

Vancouver, B.C.

CPD Approved for 5 hours

Lawyers face many more complex boundary decisions than most people do. Many practice problems lawyers get into with clients, the Law Society or other lawyers are a result of poor boundary decisions. Taking on cases you can't handle, taking on too much work, conflicts with colleagues, staff or clients, feeling overwhelmed or burned-out are often manifestations of boundary problems. This course will help you identify and create healthy and effective boundaries in your law practice, and minimize or eliminate these boundary-related issues.
