

COMMUNICATIONS AND CAMPAIGNS OFFICER

Wellington

The Tertiary Education Union (TEU) is looking for a full time Communications and Campaigns Officer in its national office in Wellington.

This senior position reports directly to the national secretary and its responsibilities will be carried out in consultation with her.

The successful applicant will take a pro-active approach to providing communications and resource materials to inform and educate members and external parties about relevant issues and to build campaigns both within the union and with the wider community through the TEU communications strategy.

Applicants must have proven experience in campaigning and communications. The successful applicant will have responsibility for the delivery of services in the areas of:

- Overseeing and implementing the communications strategy
- Media liaison
- Oversight of the TEU website
- Publications
- Development and coordination of campaigns

TEU is an education union committed to employment equity and Te Tiriti o Waitangi, and a similar commitment will be expected from the appointee.

The job description is available from the Tertiary Education Union, P.O. Box 11-767, Wellington, or by emailing amanda.hickman@teu.ac.nz Tel: (04) 801 4738. Applications, including the names of two referees, can be sent to the above.

Applications close at 5.00pm on Friday 21 June 2019
