

Amicis Solutions' Food & Beverage Functionality in its New Amicis Lifestyle Solution is Now Available in the Microsoft AppSource

Amicis Lifestyle, Available From Within Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations, Helps Retailers and Hospitality Brands Create Rich, Engaging Customer Experiences

ALPHARETTA, GA
JUNE 12, 2019

Alpharetta, GA – June 12, 2019 – Amicis Solutions, the go-to provider of services and support for Microsoft Dynamics 365 solutions for retail and hospitality brands, as well as its own best-in-class proprietary software solutions designed to help businesses meet and exceed customer expectations, today announced that the Food & Beverage functionality in its new Amicis Lifestyle solution is now available in the Microsoft AppSource.

Amicis Lifestyle is a one-of-a-kind solution built on the powerful Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations platform that empowers food and beverage, hospitality, retail and recreation companies. The solution helps businesses get up and running quickly with centralized menu, recipe and check management capabilities. From the back office to the front of the house, users of the solution experience effortless set up and configuration, central management and an intuitive, user-friendly, straightforward interface for staff.

In addition, Amicis Lifestyle significantly reduces configuration and set-up efforts with a menu hierarchy that categorizes offerings into multiple tiers, and automatically populates menu button grids at any level. New POS users can quickly and easily serve new customers, modify orders, create product kits and combos, provide important product information, split checks and more.

Amicis Lifestyle can help businesses with the following features and functionality:

Dynamic POS Menus

- Centralized configuration with automated screen layouts that automatically populate POS menu button grids
- Conversational ordering workflow displays every function at just the right time on one screen
- Manage by menu hierarchy, multi-level categories and sub-categories, assortments and availability, top sellers and other attributes
- Works with all types of products (standard product, service item, kit/combo, bill of materials, etc.)
- Tailor POS menus to show just what is desired
- A user-friendly interface provides multi-page options and the ability to customize colors for categories

Check Management

- Split checks by item or customer, or split checks evenly or manually while accepting multiple payment types
- Single screen functionality offers full visibility to all checks; users can make payments to all split checks right from the same screen without going back into the POS
- Drag and drop gestures and workflow optimization
- Recall check operation to transfer checks from one server to another

Menu Management

- Centralized management of recipes, ingredients, kits, combos, substitutions and modifiers
- Conversational ordering workflow
- Customize orders with ingredients and modifiers, which are clearly visible in extended receipt grid
- Easily make modifications and substitutions within kits, combos and recipes
- Track inventory at the recipe and ingredient levels
- Manage the default starting menu for individual POS registers

Amicis Lifestyle is a cloud-based solution available from within Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations, an ERP system designed to help companies unify their end-to-end operations to make fast, more informed decisions and drive growth. Amicis Lifestyle is also available as a standalone solution that can integrate with any ERP system on the market.

“Technology is the new battleground within the hospitality and food and beverage industries,” said Runar Sigurbjartsson, President and CEO Amicis Solutions. “It always comes down to knowing your customers and creating a great customer experience. With increased competition in these industries, companies are seeking new ways to offer customers a personalized and smooth experience when they shop or dine with them. In cooperation with Microsoft, Amicis Lifestyle’s comprehensive and proven Food & Beverage capabilities help business do just that.”
