

Production

Video Shader: The video shader is responsible for controlling light levels in cameras. With dynamic and engaging lighting during worship. This position ensures that the constant changes in light don't affect camera shots and instead, makes them look great!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Entry+

Lighting Operator: The Lighting Operator is responsible for controlling lighting cues that are programmed. They are required to know the parts of the song and correspond that with the correct light cues.

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Entry+

Camera Operator: The Camera Operator is responsible for capturing moments in the auditorium through a lens. Their job is to listen to the Video Director and find shots to help people see what is happening in the room.

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Entry+

Camera Grip: The Camera Grip is responsible for pushing the tracking camera back and forth during service to create an even more engaging experience!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Entry+

ProPresenter Operator: The ProPresenter Operator is responsible for the content being sent to the screens. Whether that is lyrics, graphics, or name tag, they are responsible for making it happen!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Mid+

Video Switcher: The Video Switcher is responsible for controlling content to ensure that what is needed to be on the screens is on the screen. In addition, they are responsible for managing Lobby TVs, Main Screens, and Pastor Scotts Teaching TV.

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Mid+

Roaming/Jib Camera Operator: The Roaming/Jib Camera Operator is responsible for capturing moments in the auditorium through a lens, either on a 20ft Jib Crane or a Handheld Camera. Their job is to listen to the Video Director and find shots to help people see what is happening in the room.

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Experienced

Video Director: The Video Director is responsible for calling camera shots on a weekend service. They are the leader of the video team and helping coordinate transitions and memorable moments throughout services. Their primary responsibility is to ensure camera shots look great and that we are engaging people online and in the room with dynamic camera shots!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Experienced

Service Producer: The Service Producer is the "captain" of the ship. They are the person making sure that the service is flowing correctly, on time, and coordinating with the team on any issues or discrepancies during service/preservice. This person is responsible for pushing the ball down the field and making services awesome!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Experienced

Church at Home Producer: This person is responsible for making Church at Home services a possibility. They are responsible for maintaining a stream, ensuring that all elements are input and ready for a Church at Home Service, and we are cutting in service on time and making our Church at Home service a win!

When: Sunday Services

Experience Level: Experienced

Dream Team Application