

Technical CTRM Consultant

Summary of Responsibilities:

Depending on experience level, the functional consultant will work from established guidelines to gather knowledge, define specifications, modify, develop, write and implement software applications and components. It is the job of the technical consultant to lead/assist on Rightangle projects. In addition, this position often works closely with functional resources and business directors to design and implement customized CTRM solutions.

Skill Requirements:

- Employ existing development tools including, but not limited to, Microsoft.NET, C# and Microsoft SQL Server
- Possess technical skills to operate within a database via query and stored procedure development
- Design, code and test software applications
- Maintain existing systems by identifying and correcting bugs
- Help enhance existing systems through analyzing business objectives and identifying areas for improvement
- Capable of rapid learning and self-study
- Develop skills in new/complimentary technologies
- Excellent analytical and technical skills

Ideal candidates will possess 3+ years of experience and a Bachelor's Degree in a related field; be highly motivated and capable of working independently; possess exceptional written and verbal communication needed to work/consult with colleagues and business specialists.

Job Location:

- May vary by client (based in Houston, Texas)
- Must be willing to travel

Compensation:

- Starting salary based on experience
- Post-training increase
- Competitive benefits including Healthcare, Vision & Dental insurance and 401(k) Plan