

Services during closure

During this time of change, First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hanover, is offering virtual church services. You are welcome to join us.

To indicate your plans to join our church services remotely and to be sent connection information, please complete the form here.

For information on young people joining our Sunday School remotely, please indicate your interest on the same form.

Currently, the Reading Room is closed.