IMPACT • INNOVATION • INTEGRITY

2020 has brought unimaginable challenges to organizations that support people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (I/DD) across the country and here in Illinois. The Institute is proud to serve as a key resource for our member organizations and the broader I/DD community during these unprecedented times. We look forward to continued partnership with Institute members in 2021 and remaining a strong advocate, leader and go-to resource in the I/DD policy arena.

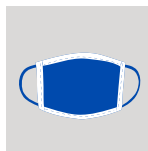

MEMBERSHIP

It's been an honor to serve as CEO of the Institute since 2015, but never more so than this past year. Bearing witness to the dedication, resiliency, creativity and collaboration shown by I/DD organizations across Illinois has been humbling, inspiring and life-changing. I know we will emerge from 2020 as a stronger community. Like all of you, I look forward to the coming year and continued partnership with Institute members, the broader I/DD community, and state agency and legislative partners. Best wishes for health and happiness in 2021. Talk soon.
