B-17 “Sentimental Journey” Arriving in Plattsburgh, NY for “Flying Legends of Victory Tour”
Arizona Commemorative Air Force Museum brings a rare chance to tour and ride in an iconic warbird

Plattsburgh, NY (7/21/2017) - One of the most iconic airplanes from World War II, B-17 Bomber “Sentimental Journey,” will make a stop in Plattsburgh, NY at the Plattsburgh International Airport as part of its Summer Flying Legends of Victory Tour across U.S. and Canada. The tour, made possible by the volunteers of the non-profit 501(c)3 Arizona Commemorative Air Force Museum, includes three restored WWII combat aircraft: C-47/DC-3 Combat Legend “Old Number 30;” B-17 Bomber “Sentimental Journey;” and B-25 Bomber “Maid in the Shade.” These warbirds and their crew will visit approximately 50 cities from June through October 2017 to fulfill their mission of educating all generations about the role of aviation in combat.

The public will have the opportunity to climb aboard the B-17 Bomber to soak in the breathtaking stories of courage and service by Americans during one of the most important periods in U.S. history. The B-17 is an exceptionally rare aircraft, as it’s one of 10 in the world that is still flying. Nicknamed the “Flying Fortress,” the B-17 was a strategic weapon in WWII because of its ability to suffer extensive battle damage and still return home. The public can book a ride in advance using the link below underpricing.
