October 2021

From the Desk of the Administrator...

It is hard to believe that October has arrived with all the beautiful Fall colors! Now is the time to enjoy some nice days outside before cold weather keeps us all inside! We will be decorating with pumpkins, mums and scarecrows soon!

We are planning our "Welcome in the Holidays" Open House on Saturday, November 20th. I hope that you will save the date to come and spend time with your loved ones here, their friends and Friendship Assisted Living staff. There will be plenty of good food, music and fellowship.

Friendship Assisted Living has many new residents and we are happy to welcome them and their family. I enjoy making sure that your loved one is content and cared for. If I have not had the pleasure of meeting you, please stop by my office when you have a chance.

As you can see in this newsletter, we are also welcoming Chris Eanes, the new Director of Dining Services. He has really settled in, meeting residents and providing support to the dining team. I am sure that Friendship Assisted Living will continue to offer delicious meals and great service!

Friendship Assisted Living is participating in two walks in October. The first is on the 23rd for the American Heart Association and the second is on the 30th for the Alzheimer's Association. If you would like to make a donation please see me or Julie Abernethy.

Happy Halloween!

CHRIS EANES

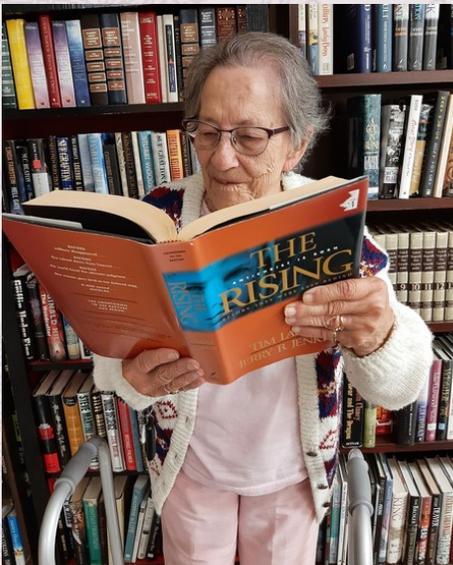

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Eanes as Director of Dining Services.

"Chris is well versed in providing excellent dining experiences," said Like Campbell, Friendship's executive director of dining services. "Coupling Chris' experience with his love for giving care to the elderly, particularly veterans, made the decision very easy."

Eanes was born and raised in Salem. He studied restaurant management and nutrition at Virginia Western community college and developed a passion for cooking from his grandparents... This article continued on page 2.

RESIDENT BIRTHDAYS

- 10-02 IRIS BUSH
- 10-03 PAT HANCOCK
- 10-06 SARA AUBITZ
- 10-08 SYLVIA BARRINGER
- 10-15 PHOEBE LOMBARDI
- 10-16 MAXINE CANADA

DORIS EGGE

Doris loves to work jigsaw puzzles that her daughter sends her in the mail. She also loves to read. It was great to have her come to the activity room to pick out a book to read.

Chris Eanes continued: He served as the executive chef for the Roanoke Civic Center, also known as the Berglund Center, and had the opportunity to prepare meals for many visiting celebrities, including B.B. King, Willie Nelson, Elton John, Jerry Seinfeld and former President Barack Obama. It was serving on a culinary team at a local rehab center where Eanes developed an appreciation in serving older adults.

“Friendship has a great reputation and I had heard about how they not only take care of their residents, but also their staff. I appreciate their involvement in the community and am looking forward to serving with the team.” says Chris.

PETER SIELINSKI

Peter is pictured here with his daughter, Susan and Chris. Susan comes in once a month and volunteers her time to decorate a spectacular birthday cake during the lunch hour.

DOT PAYNE, IRENE LONG and PHYLLIS JACKSON

What a fun game this is! We see how many words we can make out of one large one. It’s so good to keep our brains active. From this word we made 76 words as a group.

Having fun at the word game.

EMMA WARREN

Emma stated that this is the third tie-dye t-shirt she has done since she moved to Friendship.

SYLVIA BARRINGER

Sylvia is thinking peace and love should be spread. Very cool shirt!

TERRI ANGLE

Terri required a bit of help, but doesn't she look nice in her new shirt?

JANE PATTERSON

Jane is always there for each activity. Great job Jane!
