

AMICABLE Final Project Conference

Online Event (CEST Time, Berlin)

11th -12th June 2021

The AMICABLE project's specific two objectives are:

- ★ The creation of a legal "roadmap" in form of a Best Practice Tool for judges, legal practitioners and mediators which will assist parents with the cross-border enforceability and recognition of mediated family agreements. An EU general Best Practice Tool as well as four country-specific tools for Spain, Poland, Italy and Germany have been developed in the course of this project (in English and the respective national language).
- ★ The introduction of a Best Practice Model for incorporating mediation, initiated by the judge, into the tight six-week timeframe of child abduction proceedings under the 1980 Hague Child Abduction Convention. Such a model is already operative in Germany, the UK and in the Netherlands. The project's objective is to facilitate the exchange of information and mutual learning and to explore how the model could be introduced in Spain, Poland and in Italy

The AMICABLE project is an EC co-financed project conceived by MiKK (Project Co-ordinator) with the aim of creating legal roadmaps or “Best Practice Tools” to assist Judges, Lawyers and Mediators with the cross-border recognition and enforceability of mediated family agreements in the EU. The project also seeks to promote a tried-and-tested model for incorporating mediation into international child abduction proceedings in the EU. It is hoped that the results of the AMICABLE project will help to promote mediation in cross-border family disputes within the EU.

The Project Consortium involves partners from four EU Member States: University of Wroclaw (Poland), University of Milano-Bicocca (Italy) and University of Alicante (Spain), MiKK (Germany).

The AMICABLE project is supported by a Steering Committee consisting of Central Authorities and Hague Liaison Judges of the EU Member States involved in the project, the Hague Conference on Private International Law (HCCH), Prof Paul Beaumont, the European Parliament (EP) Coordinator on Children's Rights and the European Association of Judges for Mediation (GEMME). For details on the Consortium and Steering Committee please refer to the AMICABLE website. www.amicable-eu.org.
