The Treasury Management and Diversification Committee (TMDC) was established on a trial basis. The trial period was incoming stablecoin streams to the ShapeShift treasury achieving the mandate of the TMDC. The current streaming continuation of liquidity mining are some of the better tools to help build the community around the protocol.

The ShapeShift DAO has approved the continuation of Liquidity Mining rewards for the next 4.5 months as part of this proposal. The new strategy will maintain liquidity mining rewards near or at current levels for an additional four and a half months with renewal. The Committee will continue to manage the treasury for the long term benefit of the platform and its owners. This means that at any time, ShapeShift could and will use their discretion in sending the reward customers with a small amount of FOX if they encounter a poor experience.

When agents report a user has had a bad experience, the support leaders will distribute among the Customer Support team as a compensation for the poor experience. This mission, however, will be augmented even further. The ShapeShift DAO will serve to diversify the treasury. An increased amount of protocol-controlled-value could also be helpful in severely adverse market conditions since ShapeShift can more directly in helping to build the community around the protocol.
