

PackageFromSanta.com Delivers a Magical Santa Experience to Children with a Personalized Letter, Call, and Video from Santa

Aimed at Stoking a Child's Imagination, Belief in Santa and Right to Be a Kid

DETROIT, MICH (November 2019) PackageFromSanta.com, the nation's leading Santa-letter-package service provider, arms parents with an array of magical tools to help children delight and believe in Santa. The personalized letter, call, and video from Santa nourish a healthy imagination while the custom personalization builds self-esteem and confidence creating cherished memories that will last a lifetime.

It's every parent's desire to provide the best childhood possible and delivering traditions of delight and fantasy at Christmas time is a great place to start. Every Package From Santa includes three personalized and magical tools; a letter, call, and video. The fully customizable letter from Santa arrives in a package from the North Pole addressed to your child via U.S. mail complete with personal details about your child that only Santa could know. The call from Santa (iPhone/Android/Landline compatible) features the child's name and photo on the incoming smartphone call screen and Santa mentions your child's age, state, country among other details. Parents can determine the exact timing for the call to come in. The video from Santa, offered in seven different themes and plotlines, is a movie-quality featurette that stars the child using personal photos.

"Your child will feel loved and known building esteem while nourishing a healthy imagination. Parents love the magical tools we provide them as they help them play the Santa game with their children!" explains Dale and Carey Gruber, the husband-wife owners of PackageFromSanta.com.

For the complete PackageFromSanta.com gift-experience, parents can order online choosing from three package price points starting at $14.95 -- the letter, call, and video are included with every package. The add-on option of an array of extra North Pole goodies allows parents to further personalize each package and, if desired, even turn it into a luxury gift in upwards of $150.

"Children cherish the magical memories of believing in Santa Claus forever, but the sad truth is, kids these days are growing up too fast. Our hope is to stretch out childhood innocence a little longer by stoking the healthy fires of youthful imagination with the wonder, anticipation, and joy of Santa at Christmas time. It works! We've made millions of little eyes light up when they receive their Package From Santa!" explain Dale and Carey Gruber.
