

International Trading Challenge 2020

Only the game can teach you the game

Trade and win! Register now for this year's International Trading Challenge! Of course, it is free of charge for every student.

APPLY NOW

At the International Trading Challenge 2020 - everyone is a winner! You will gain experience in the capital markets and can try out new investment strategies. Whether you are a beginner or trading professional, you either enrich your knowledge and experience or have the chance to win extraordinary prizes - you can only win by participating!

Manage your own portfolio by buying and selling over 9.000 stocks.

NEW: This year, also ETFs are tradable via short and long positions!

NEW: Integrated Crash Course by the BVH (Bundesverband der Börsenvereine an deutschen Hochschulen)

Of course, an exciting challenge also includes attractive prizes which are presented to the traders with the best performance at the end of the challenge.

Prices for students:

1st place: Iphone 11 + 10,5" iPad Air

2nd place: Iphone 11

3rd place: 10,5" iPad Air

4th place: Sonos One

Additionally, a Lucky Loser will be drawn from all participants who are not represented on places 1 to 4. A great surprise prize (VIP Tickets) is waiting for her/him.

Moreover, the best 15 traders will receive an official certificate from the WHU Finance Society e.V.

Prize for the best university:

The best university (overall performance of the students) can look forward to a 6-month license for the Eikon terminal of REFINITIV. So, tell your fellow students and friends!

Please pay particular attention to the rules of the game and the information on the right to participate and win.

Good luck and have fun!
