

For a Farm to work well objects need to be in their proper place. Using your memory, help the farmer organize the lower barn so it is easier to do the chores. Cut the objects out of the first page and paste them where they belong on the second page.

